Listen to the Exhortation of the Dawn!
Look to this day! For it is Life,
The very Life of Life.
In its brief course lie all the Verities
And Realities of your Existence;
The Bliss of Growth,
The Glory of Action,
The Strength of Tradition,
The Splendor of Beauty;
For Yesterday is but a Dream,
And Tomorrow is only a Vision;
But Today well lived
Makes every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope,
Look well therefore to this Day!
Such is the Salutation of the Dawn.

A New Day

For East High's first graduates

For The Community School

THE DAWN OF A NEW DAY is often the occasion when man thinks most clearly. He can ponder his destiny in the reflective light of experience and in an atmosphere of positive ideas. From these elements can come the birth of man's greatest successes and the realization of dreams long anticipated.

THE DREAM OF EAST HIGH SCHOOL became a reality when its first students gathered on two sister school campuses in September, 1964. In the foundation of East High School is combined a cohesiveness of purpose and direction blended from the thoughts of student, parent, and educator. With the completion of its physical plant, January 25, 1965 dawned an already strong and vigorous East High School as a result of this feeling of oneness among these three elements.

EACH YEAR BRINGS A NEW DAWN for our community and school. As East High School experienced the birth of its second year, a student body of 1400, its faculty, administrators, and the community accepted the challenges set forth in the philosophy of East High School which intends "... to enable its students to become cognizant of the past, to apply accumulated knowledge to the present and to place facts and principles in new combinations for the future."

1965-1966 BROUGHT WITH IT action programs designed to fulfill further our intention to place emphasis on "... the student's self-direction, his ability to think critically, and his preparation for responsible adult citizenship" through the honor study halls and elimination of the tardy bell.

THE EAST HIGH WRANGLERS, working with a dedicated administration and faculty, have implemented an atmosphere "... of easy and friendly communication between students and faculty and between faculty and parents."

EAST HIGH SCHOOL — an established and interested community and the dawn of a new day in education — already a legend in its youth.

THE STRENGTH OF TRADITION is the foundation on which a successful student body is built. Based on a constitution which represents the thoughts of all our students and provides for their participation, traditions have been established in areas of government, activity, athletics and academic endeavors.

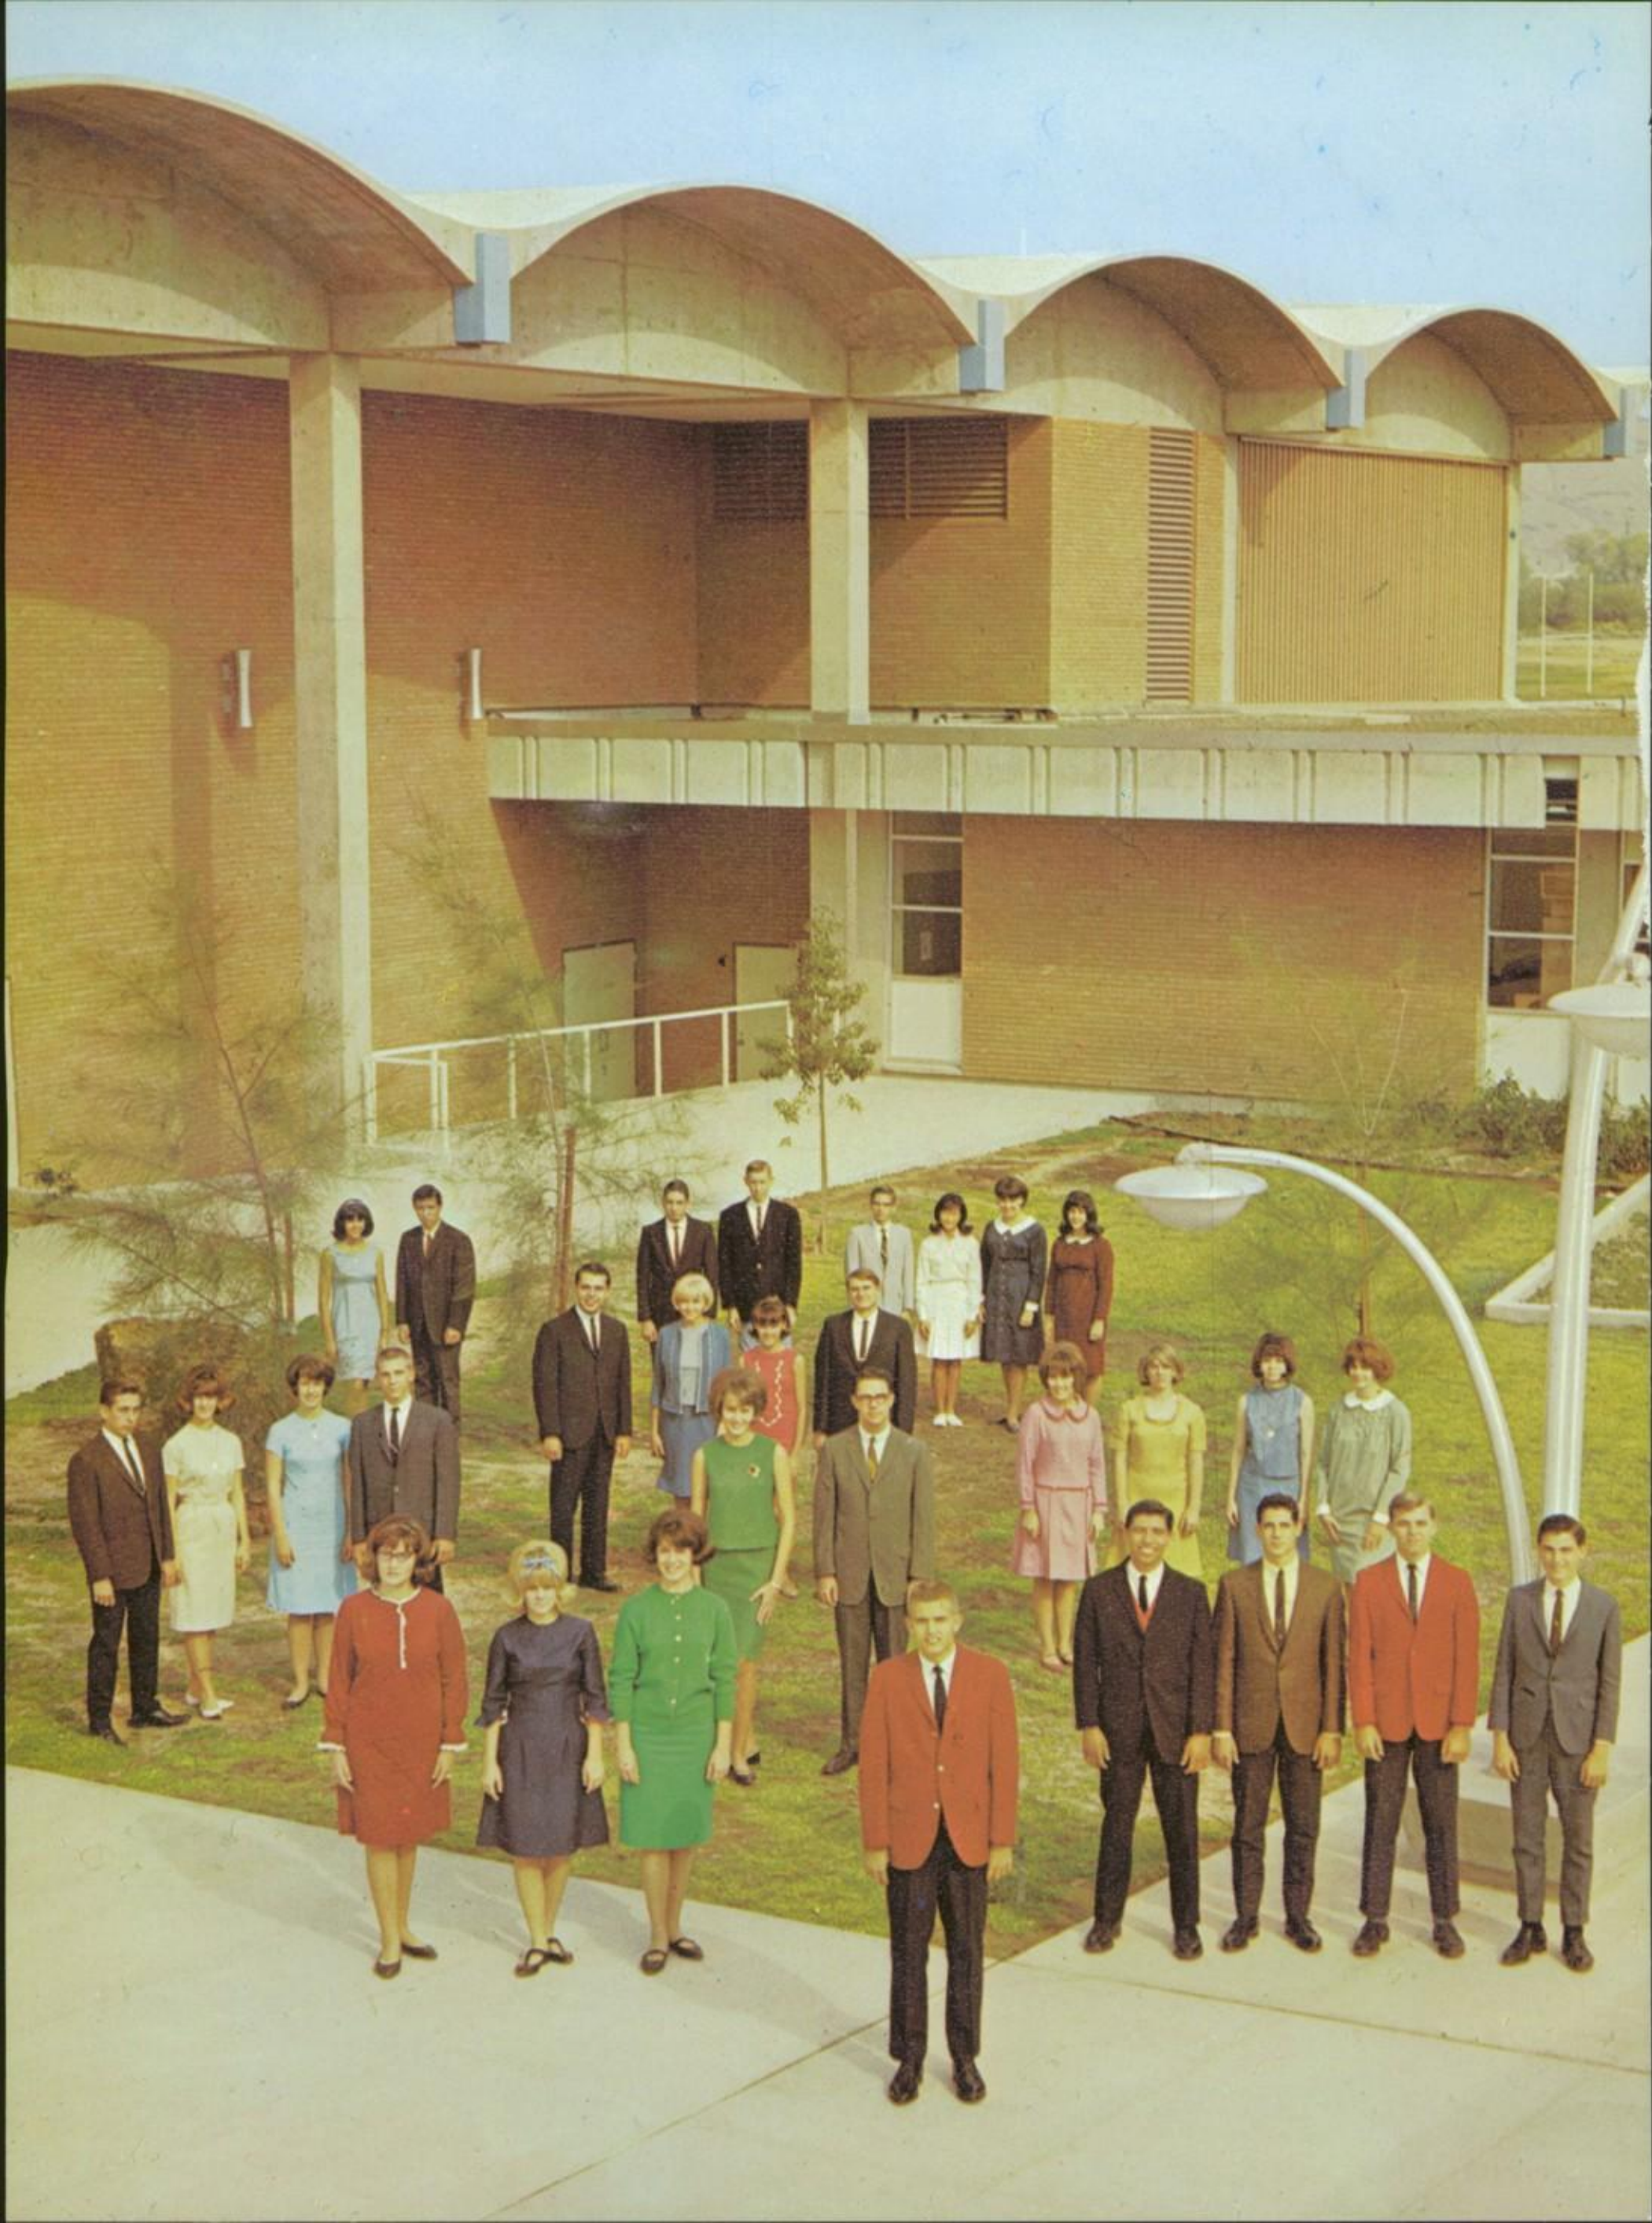

Traditions stem from roots of serious thought and from cooperative efforts of the elected student officials.

AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, composed of the student body officers and the four class presidents, directs these efforts in seeing that precedents set have lasting strength.

Student codes and other important matters concerning the student body are handled by a 30-member Student Senate. It is this body which puts traditions into action.

The Strength Of Tradition

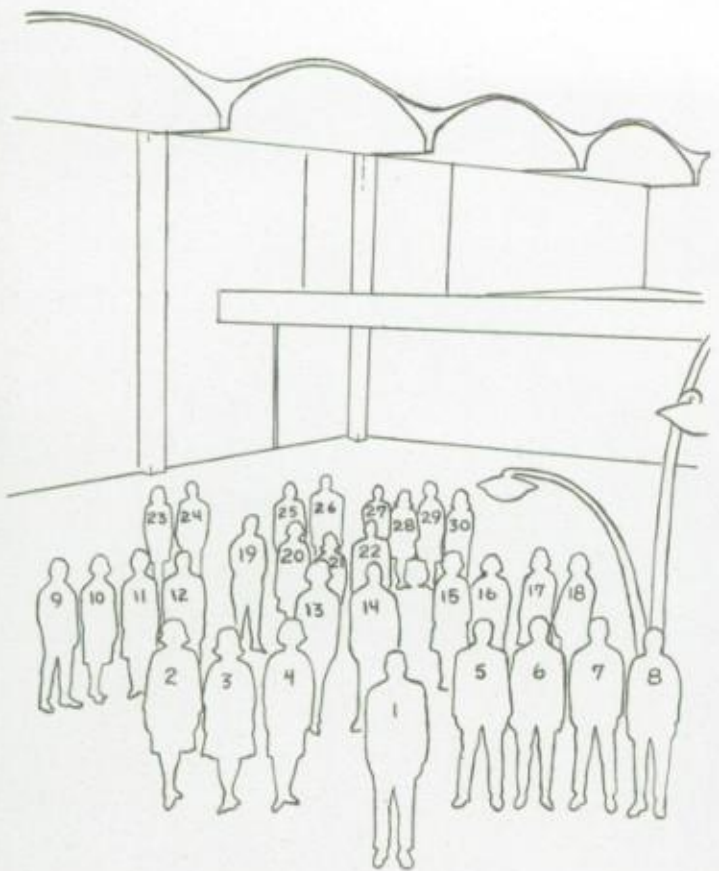

Senior senator Bob McBride, representing the physical education department, speaks on an issue at Senate meeting.

Barbara Milton (center) reads the minutes of earlier Senate meeting as Student Body president Walt Allinger and corresponding secretary Jan Jones look on.

Student Senate Gains Prestige As Delegates Govern With Efficiency

When East High's first Student Body ratified its constitution in the Spring of 1965, it adopted a system of student government which is unique among high schools. The STUDENT SENATE, which began operation in 1965-66, has a membership of 30 students and represents all areas of student life in setting policy and initiating programs. Meeting twice a month, the Senate is made up of the Student Body officers, class presidents, four representatives from each class, delegates from Girls' League and Boys' Federation, and representatives from the four activity areas — music, publications, speech arts, and physical education.

East High's first Student Senate (opposite page) is made up of the following students: Student Body officers (1) Walt Allinger, president, (2) Jan Jones, (3) Barbara Milton, (4) Linda Cockerham; class presidents (5) Ron Castro, senior; (6) David Saliba, junior; (7) Jim Younger, sophomore; (8) Jim Farney, freshman; senior senators (9) Leland Miller, (10) Lynn Miller, (11) Judy Hawthorne, (12) Keith Woodward; Girls' League president (13) Pam Cooper; faculty advisor (14) Larry K. Kelly; junior senators (15) Paula Bixler, (16) Karen England, (17) Ruth Stevenson, (18) Jean Joiner; music senator (19) Rick Mendevil; publications senator (20) Lorna Jones; speech and drama senator (21) Bernadette Kaput; physical education senator (22) Bob McBride; sophomore senators (23) Margo Green, (24) Rob Castro, (25) David Kessler, (26) Sam Ballard; freshman senators (27) Richard Avery, (28) Gayle Wong, (29) Valerie Brown, and (30) Selma Hyman.

As the class presidents "egg" him on, a freshman student plays a "yoke" on Student Body president Walt Allinger. The egg and whipped cream bath was the Senate's booth at the annual Student Carnival.

Walt Allinger Leads East's High Standards For '66;

Members of the Executive Committee were: Mr. Larry Kelly, sponsor; Walt Allinger, Student Body president; Linda Cockerham, Student Body vice president.

The Executive Committee, composed of elected student representatives, met each day during second hour to solve problems brought to them by students, teachers, and administrators. Their duties included planning and administering student activities, organizing special committees, assisting administrators, promoting school spirit, and forming procedures and traditions for the use of future student leaders.

As East High's first Student Body president, Walt Allinger was a pacesetter. An honor student and a varsity basketball player, Walt kept the students informed through his RAWHIDE GAZETTE article "Inside Student Government". He hopes that future presidents will continue this practice.

Walt's official duties included presiding over Executive Committee and Student Senate meetings and Student Body assemblies. He represented East at the National Convention of Student Leaders in Lexington, Kentucky, the monthly Phoenix Union District Student Council meetings, and many other local and state meetings and conventions.

Leading the Student Body in a tradition-setting year, Walt was the first president to receive a scarlet blazer like those of the administrators. Mr. Larry Kelly made the presentation at a Student Senate meeting. (pictured at right)

She served as chairman of the Activities Committee and was also in charge of receiving and correcting all club constitutions.

Student Body recording secretary, Barbara Milton, kept records of Executive Committee meetings on file and took minutes at Student Senate meetings and distributed copies of them to the Student Body and to the teachers. Barbara typed agendas and other important papers for the Student Senate. Barbara was secretary of the Girls' Athletic Association and a member of Girls' Letter Club.

Serving the school as Student Body corresponding secretary-treasurer, Janifer Jones handled all Student Body correspondence and kept the students informed through daily bulletins. Jan kept records of all Associated Students' expenditures and requisitions. An ambitious leader, Jan was an active member in Quill and Scroll, Girls' League, Rodeo Club, a LEGEND section editor, and chairman of the Elections Committee.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTHS AND REALITIES — It seems unimportant to most of us until suddenly we must call on it. East High students, upon entering as freshmen, are made aware of the relative importance of the myriad of experiences they will encounter in the four short years.

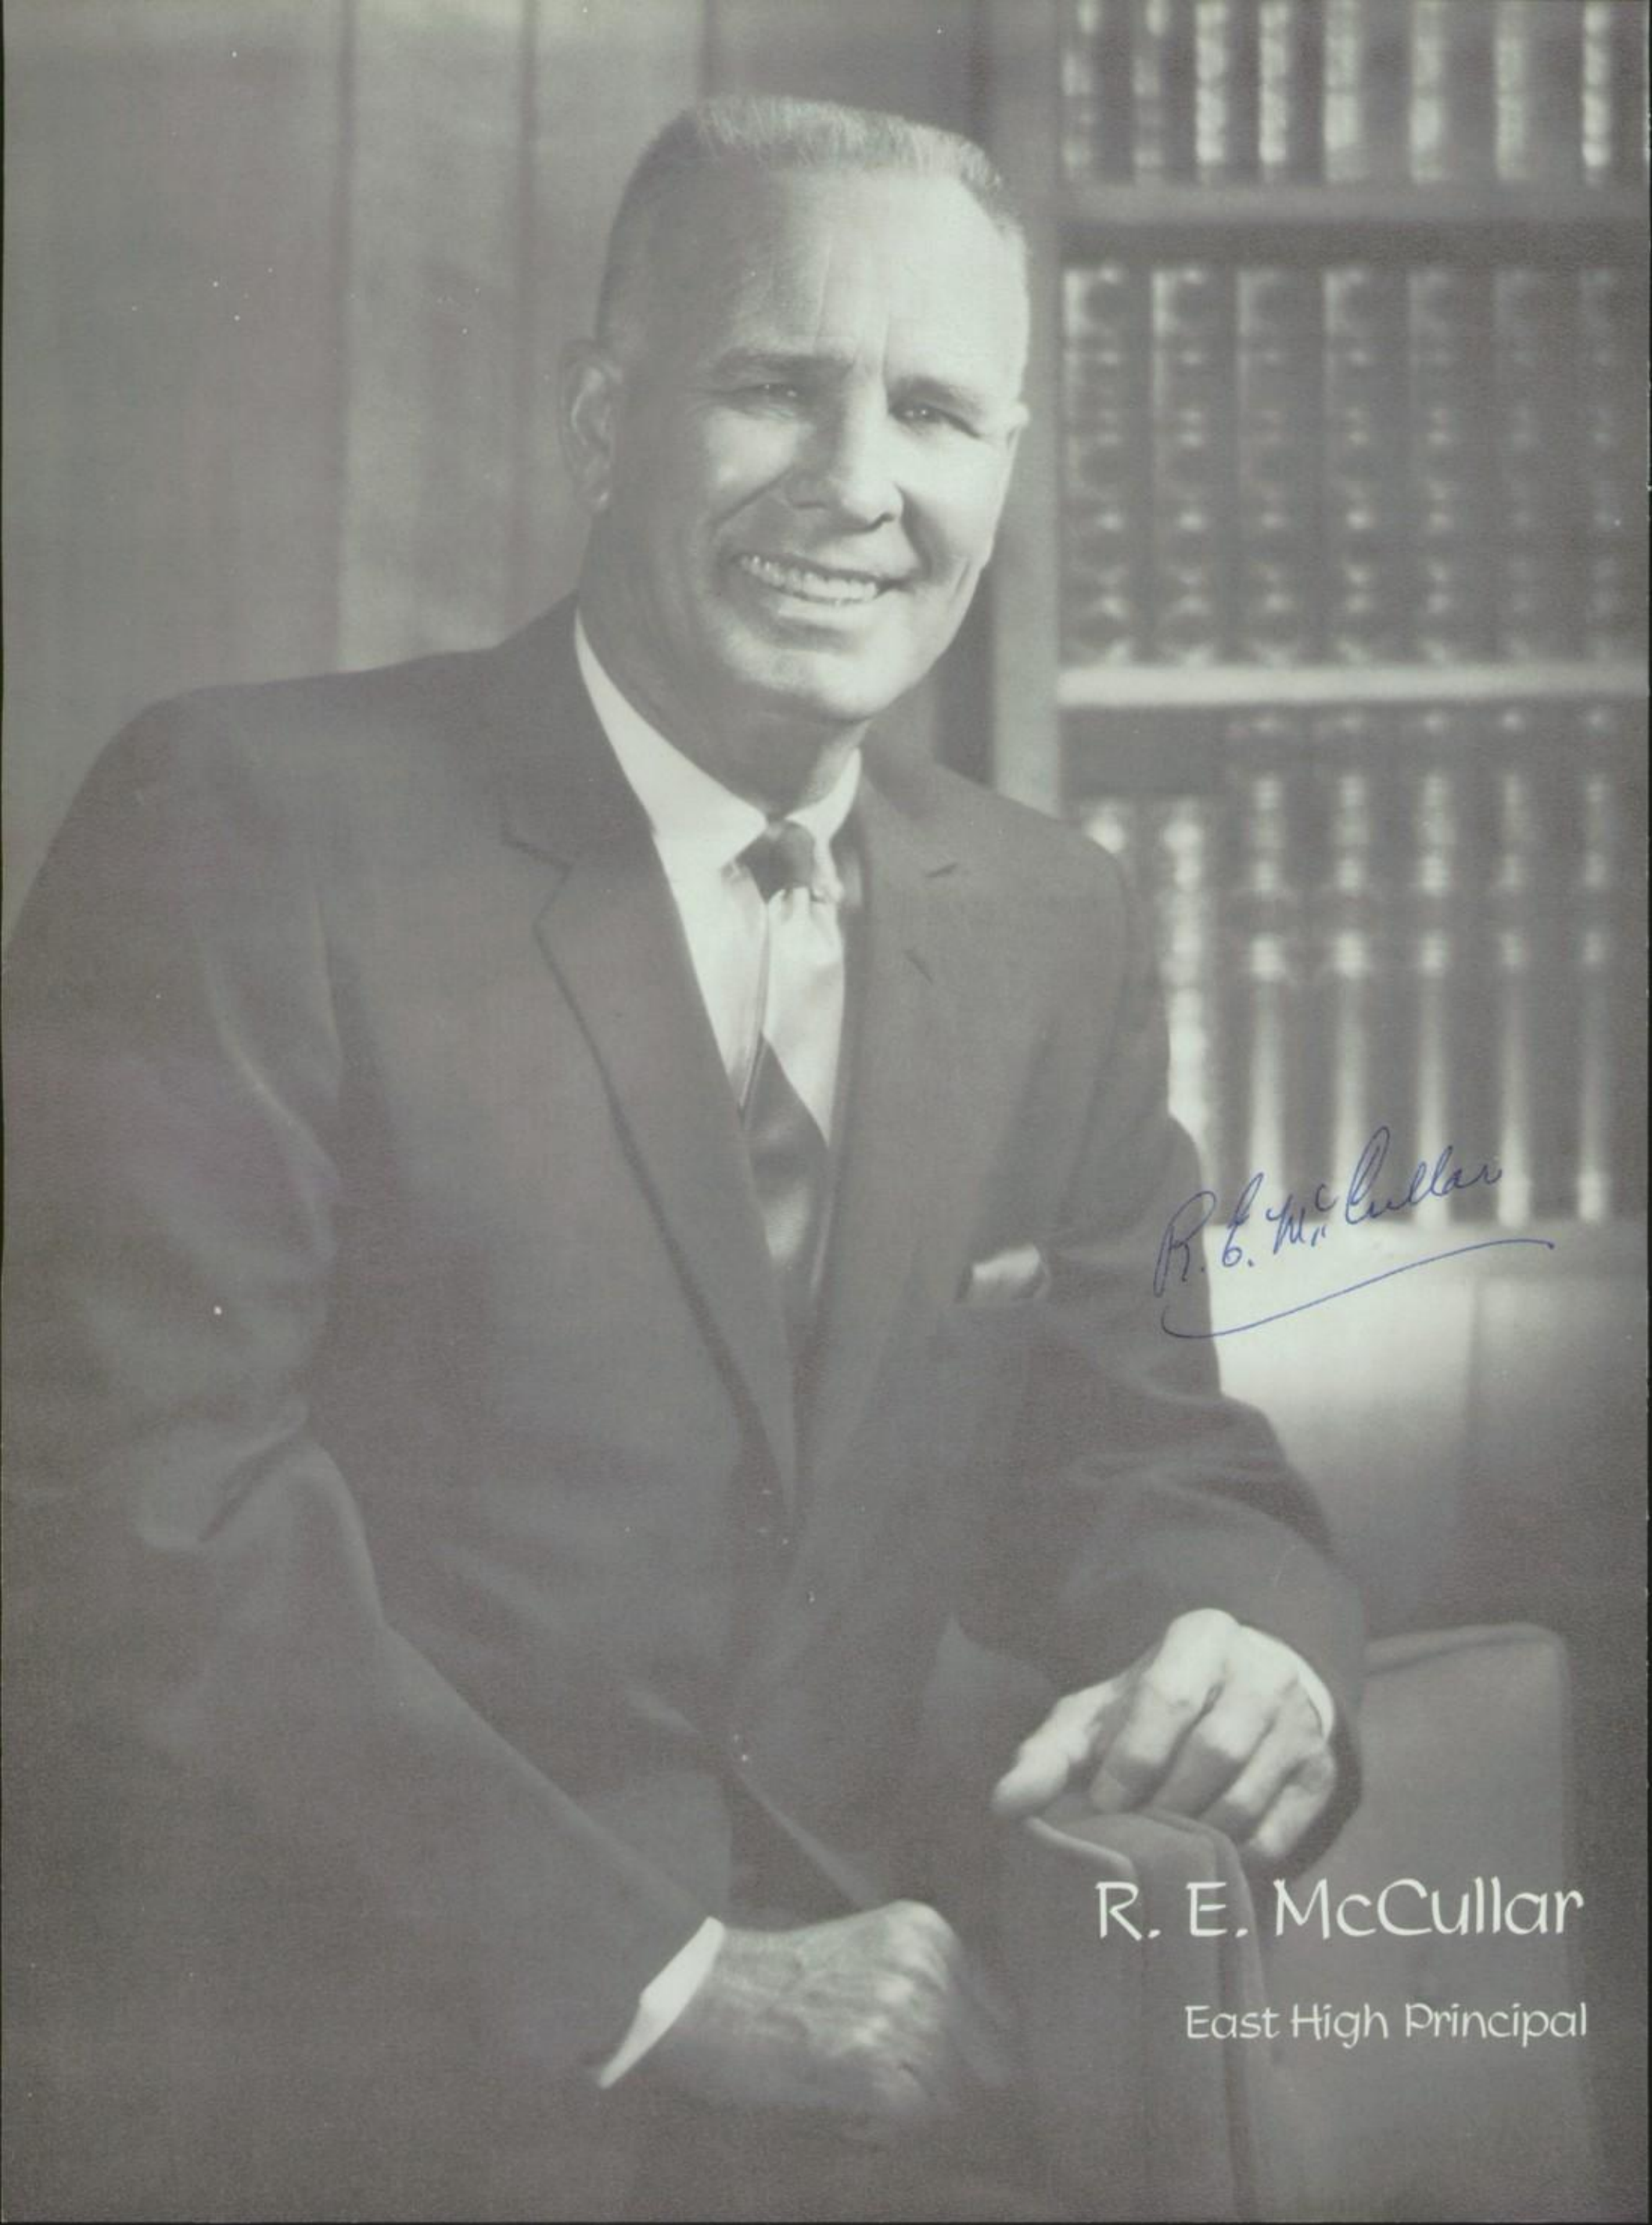

OUR ADMINISTRATION, through its diligent endeavors, has chosen a faculty which exceeds the highest qualifications, and has established the importance of the student as an individual.

THE FACULTY instills in all students the desire to seek knowledge, not only in the classroom, but in every aspect of life.

To make available the truths and realities of our existence is a first step. To guide the student through this maze to his personal goals is foremost at East High.

East Administrators Involve Community, Students In Plans

Most administrators would willingly accept the responsibility for opening a new high school in a new and well designed facility. Here is an opportunity for establishing the academic and activity program one has dreamed of during the years required to earn the position. East High School's team of administrators, led by R. E. McCULLAR as principal, put their dream into action. Believing that a high school belongs to the students who attend it and the community which surrounds it, McCULLAR, joined by Associate Principal ROBERT D. BLACKMAN and Administrative Assistants VIRGINIA BROWN and WILLIAM P. DAVIS, involved these people, in so far as they were able, in determining what East High School should be. East High, the 10th member of the Phoenix Union High School District, is on a sound foundation.

Enthusiasm, Efficiency Mark Classified Staff

Throughout the school year, East High's classified staff works efficiently to insure the transaction of school business vital to the operation of the school. Responsible for the registration of students, their records and keeping up with East High's active administrators, these people show the spirit and enthusiasm which is typical of all Longhorns.

In addition to his administrative duties as head of the Counseling Department, Mr. Moore meets with students regularly.

Counselor Staff Ready To Help

To an incoming freshman, one of the best friends he can have is his counselor. While assisting students with planning his program and registration details, the counselor is also ready to help the student become adjusted to high school life.

Later in his high school years, the counselor will offer him vocational and scholarship information and assistance so that the college bound and terminal student may plan and direct themselves toward personal goals.

The vocational file as well as the college catalog library gets a great deal of use. Mrs. Traw helps Virginia Bittner with some information on a secretarial career.

Serious discussions are the general rule when the counselor and student get together. Mrs. Malpede talks with Ron Castro.

Ability And Initiative Placement Standards

The myriad of subject matter and course offerings in East High's English department reinforce this division's overall importance and make it the largest department on campus. Offering a number of ways — based on ability and initiative — for each student's four-year English class requirement to be filled, the department uses the latest teaching tools to make its classes interesting and useful. Students of varying abilities may enroll for classes from the advanced level to classes in reading and special education.

Math Is Aid In All Areas

Mathematics is a course which plays an important role in many other fields of study. A basic understanding of math is essential not only in the mathematically oriented subjects such as engineering, chemistry and electronics, but is also beneficial in the study of business administration, marketing, and even home economics. East High offers a math program to supplement each of these specific areas of study, and even more.

Science Unlocks Mysteries

Microscopes, test tubes, energy and matter are the everyday tools of East High's science department. Through the use of these and other researching agents, the study of life sciences and the physical sciences are fostered.

In the biological study of life science, animals and plants, their relationships with each other and their environments are studied. Chemistry deals with the characteristics of the elements.

Physical science is studied through earth science, which deals with the make up of the earth's crust, and physics, which is primarily the study of the relationships between matter and energy.

The Double A program was instituted in the department with the advanced biology class. This program will be extended to include other classes as the enrollment increases.

Social Studies Uses Past, Present To Prepare Students For Future

To gain from the past, live in the present, and prepare for the future. A primary statement in East High School's educational philosophy, it may ably be applied to our social studies department. The study of world history, American history, and U.S. government acquaints the student with the events of the past, the generation of today's governments, and the probable evolution of future developments of state. With the knowledge gained through the study of social studies, a student is enabled to become a more intelligent contributor to our society.

Job Opportunities Multiply For Business Enthusiasts

Today, almost every industry, whether technical or educational, requires a business department. East is training students for a future in the business fields by offering such courses as typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, business machines, office training, note-hand, and distributive education. The D.E. program offers juniors work in marketing and sends students through merchandising classes and then to on the job training in retail businesses.

Concentration and dexterity are the keys in business machines. Students work on as many as 10 machines.

Linda Johnson, Linda Arce, Cinde Collins, and (back row) Charlotte Kilsby, Dianne Wilke, and Angela Szymczak take shorthand at speeds which match their ability in East's new shorthand lab. Scores of special tapes were added to the shorthand library.

Ranging from three bands to choruses for boys and girls to a newly organized orchestra, the music curricula offers students the opportunity to learn and be a part of performing groups. Courses in history, harmony and appreciation will be added next year.

Music, Language Offer Dimension To The Arts

With international communication becoming of even greater importance in our world today, it is almost essential that a student receive some training in at least one foreign language. Both modern and classical languages are offered at East. The courses in French, Spanish, German, and Latin give students an opportunity to become acquainted not only with the means of verbal communication in foreign countries, but also a look at the culture and customs of the countries being studied.

Practical Arts Prepare Students For The Future

East High offers the beginnings of a complete Industrial Arts program. Five courses at the beginning level — Woodshop, Metals, Drafting, General Shop, and Electronics. These areas furnish what is often the only opportunity for students to learn the skills of the practical arts.

An article published nationally during the 65-66 school year stated that young women today are not adequately prepared for the domestic responsibilities of marriage. East High's girls have the opportunity to further their knowledge and develop homemaking skills.

Physical, Health Education Bring Fitness And Fun

Developing dexterity and coordination, building a sound body and sportsmanlike attitudes is the goal of the physical education department. Boys in regular p.e. classes participate in isometrics, weightlifting, gymnastics, and a variety of other purposeful exercises. East's boys physical education program also furthers interest and participation in interscholastic athletics. A wide range of p.e. classes are also open to girls. Tennis, softball, volleyball, archery and badminton are a few of many participation sports offered in regular classes. For those girls with singular interests, classes are available in modern dance and pom pon and cheer productions.

Service Departments Add Strength To All Programs

A wide variety and complexity of services are necessary for the efficient maintenance of East High. The success of most school functions depends on the ability of our service departments. Included in this wide field of classification are the Bookstore, Resource Center and Audio Visual center. Student physical well being is the constant concern of another section, our Health Center.

New Members Added to East Faculty

Arizona State University graduate THOMAS INMAN was named to the East High mathematics department at the opening of second semester to teach the Algebra I class added to the curriculum. East High is Mr. Inman's fourth stop at a Phoenix Union High School system school, having attended Camelback High, graduated from North, and having completed his student teaching at Alhambra. Married, Mr. Inman is the father of a year old son.

New to the East High faculty for the second semester, but no stranger to the Foreign Language Department here where he holds classes in Spanish 2, HECTOR BEJARANO joined the staff on January 31 after serving as Mrs. Adams' student teacher for the first semester. A graduate of Miami High School, Mr. Bejarano completed his bachelors degree in January at Arizona State University where he had enrolled on an athletic scholarship.

THE SPLENDOR OF BEAUTY is evidenced in many ways at East High School. Beauty is captured in more than the loveliness of the face of the queen of the ball or the personality of a club sweetheart.

Beauty is the glow of success after one has made a genuine effort in his endeavor. Beauty is realizing a goal. TO BE SURE, royalty is a combination of outward and inward beauty; but beauty is not confined to royalty. Beauty is reflected in the virtue of accomplishment through initiative, imagination, and vision. These high attainments are given recognition by esteemed organizations as National Honor Society. And hard work does not go unrewarded. Scholarships and other awards are presented to those who earn their way.

PARNASSUS CLUB, East High's honor club for students with outstanding academic records, accepted nearly 70 applicants for membership during the second semester of 1965-66. Strict achievement goals are posted by the club and students who can qualify must apply for the right to join the honor society. To meet the high standards, applicants must surpass the regular honor roll requirements by at least one point. Students who maintain membership for three, five, and seven consecutive semesters are granted special awards at Honors Assembly.

Twenty eight freshmen led the Parnassus membership list for second semester, with 14 juniors, 13 sophomores and 10 seniors seeking and receiving invitations for membership. Meetings are held during the year as the club sponsors several service projects and raises funds for its own special awards. Officers for the 1965-66 school year were: KARL LAUBACH, president, DAVID SALIBA, vice president, KATHY PARKER, secretary and JAYNE RATHKEY, treasurer. Club Sponsor is Kenneth Salt, East High English instructor.

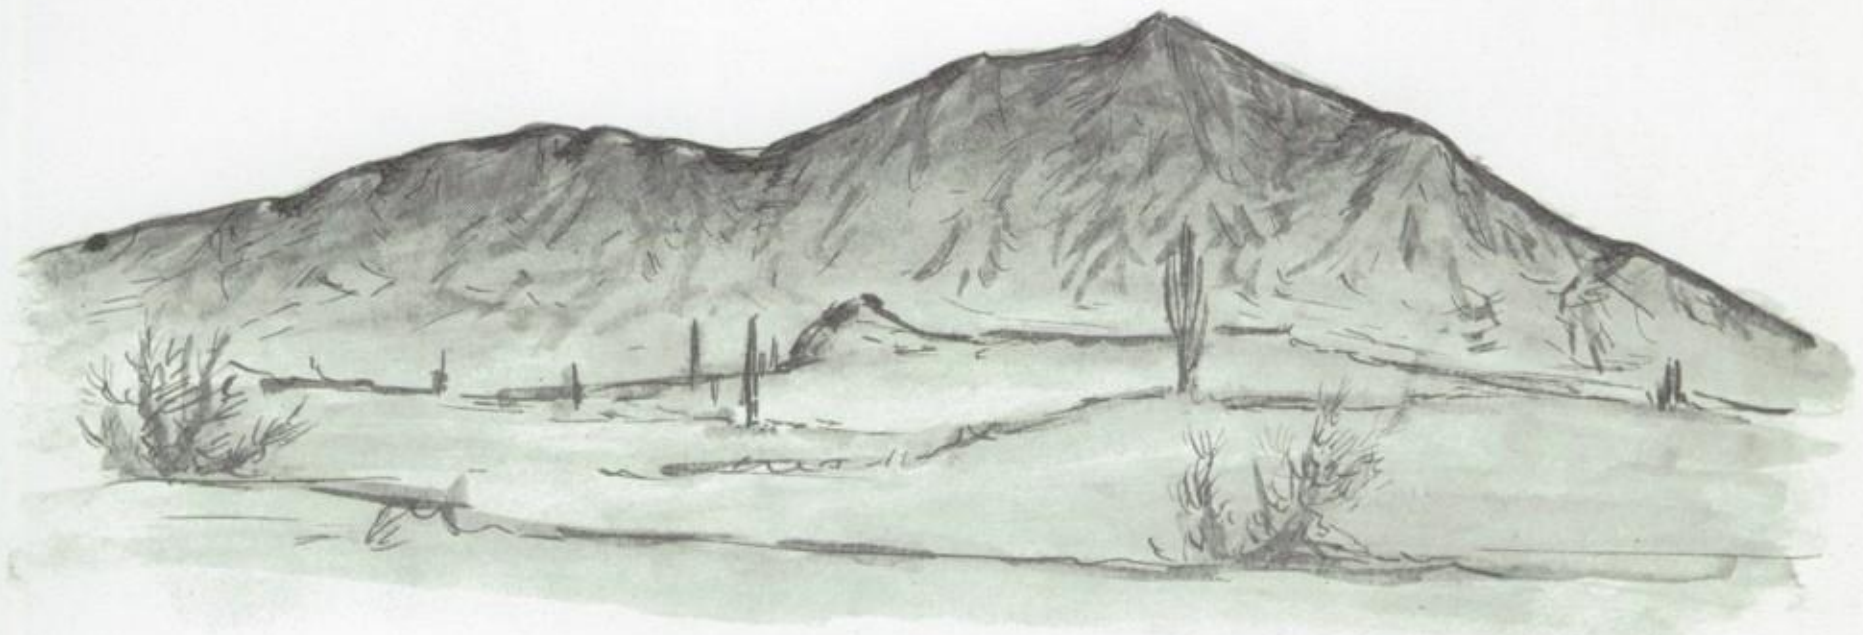

THE VERY LIFE OF LIFE is activity. Participation and the responsibilities which go with it allow for the maturation of the student in ways not available in the classroom.

Individual fulfillment is achieved in whatever area a student desires through the various departments which sponsor activity programs: music, drama, publications and physical education.

WHETHER ON STAGE or behind the scenes, the individual shares his talents and enthusiasm toward the betterment of the total program. In or out of the public eye, participation pays off as you become kin to success.

When you are a part, activity is exciting, different, educational, and rewarding. And, of course, life would be dull without it.

East's Pep Band does just what its name implies. The group adds excitement to home basketball games and provides the music for the pep assemblies.

Stage Band Ready For Many Events

Dance Band, pit band, orchestra for musicals and other special events — all of these titles have been encompassed under the name Stage Band at East High.

The Stage Band is on call for any number of events where special music is needed. Although limited in its performances during 1965-66, the band is ready to go for the next school year.

The East Concert Band performs at Phoenix Union under the baton of Mr. Longfield.

Here comes the Longhorn Marching Band down First Street in the annual Rodeo Parade.

Drummajor Ted Buxton gives directions to the members of the Marching Band as it prepares to perform in the annual Jaycee Rodeo of Rodeos Parade, March 26 in downtown Phoenix. The Marching Band performed in all home and away football games and took part in several other special events during the 1965-66 school year.

In concert dress and on stage at the Phoenix Union High School auditorium, East High's concert band drew high praise for its 'serious music' presentation at the second annual system-wide Band Festival March 18.

It was a great year for East High School's Marching and Concert Bands. Under the direction of Richard Longfield, the band took the field for the first time in 1965 sporting its new double-duty uniforms at the opening football game. The uniforms, designed to give the band two uniforms in one — one for the marching season and a tuxedo-type for concerts — set off the year in high style. Depending on many freshmen and sophomores to complete the 60-member organization, the East musical organization earned high praise for its halftime performances at football games and came back to show its versatility by drawing plaudits for serious music work at the annual Band Festival.

Concert Choir Readies Repertoire For Future

East High's vocal music students will point with pride in the future to the newly formed Concert Choir organized during the 1965-1966 school year. Boys and girls who can qualify for Concert Choir have the opportunity to work with special kinds of music.

A small but active group, Concert Choir singers spent time in the second semester working on a myriad of musical styles from show tunes to the chants and songs from vocal music's earliest beginnings. Their performances during the Easter season highlighted their year.

Quality Goal For East's Vocal Music

Beginning girls chorus membership is open to any girl at East High who wishes to work toward a position in advanced or concert choirs. While the girls make several performances during the school year, emphasis is placed on voice training and on reading music. The girls take up the full scale of music types from popular numbers to work set in the classic style.

Chorus Sings In Assemblies

Girls who became a part of the advanced girls chorus generally take one of two steps to qualify. Most of the members come from the beginning choral group while others go directly to advanced chorus through auditions. Two members of advanced chorus are elected to serve on the Vocal Music Association executive committee. The Association is composed of members from each of the choral groups on campus.

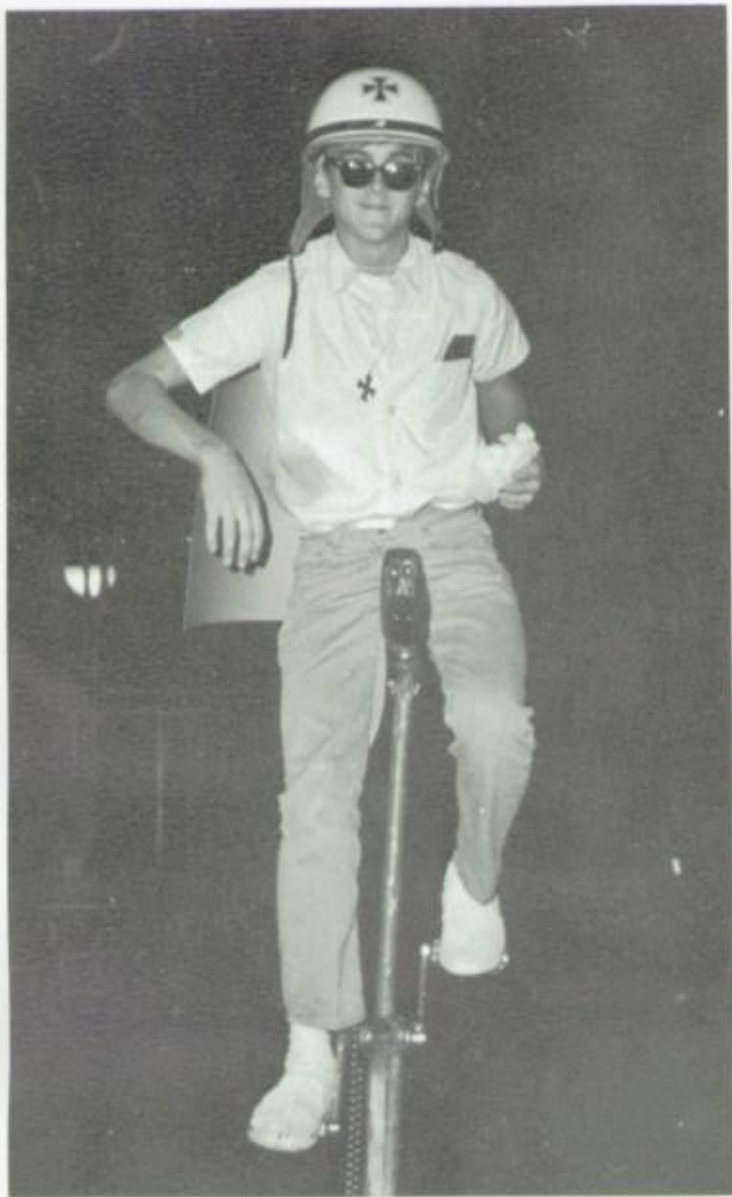

Behind every performance are hours and hours of rehearsal. Three girls groups and one boys chorus practice every day.

Come one, come all to the East High carnival! The carnival, held on November 19, 1965 was co-sponsored by the Wranglers and the clubs on campus. Each club had a booth. These booths ranged from Eastern Union, a telegraph company, to Dan-o-vac, a computer which answered any and all questions.

Are you sure Mickey Mantle started this way?

The carnival was a joint fund raising project for all clubs. The turn out was large and everyone had opportunity for plenty of participation.

One of the booths sold telegrams.

Squish! The Pom and Cheer lines were hit by wet sponges.

"It looks like a ringer," shouts Brenda Thompson.

Even though dances are fun, it helps to sit one out, and just listen for awhile.

Swing's The Thing After The Games

After an exciting football game, the Longhorns unwind to the music of the Pendletons.

Dance, dance, dance. Most high school students love to dance, and the Longhorns are no exception. To get better attendance at the football games, the student body decided to have live bands for some of the dances. This served two purposes; to promote school spirit, and to raise money at the dances. Three of the bands which performed were, Pendletons, Hearseman, and the Wanderers.

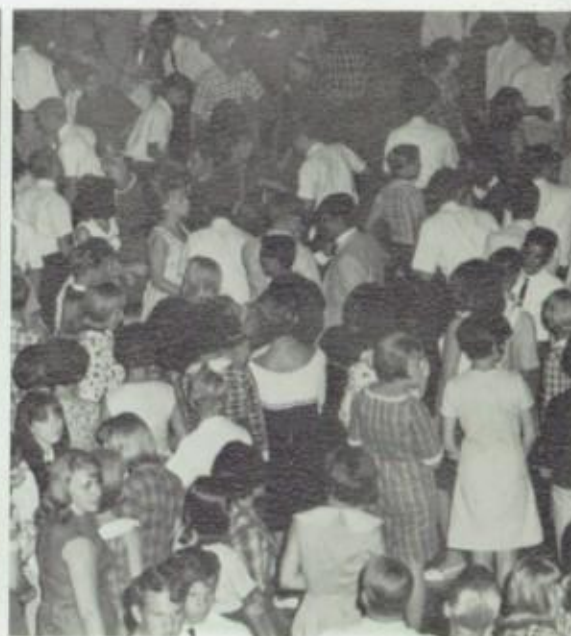

Pendletons played at the first dance of the school year. This dance was sponsored by the senior class.

Good music and lots of laughter make any dance a success.

Hearseman played after the Gerard-East football game. During the football season the dances had several live bands.

When live bands appeared at the sports dances the turn out was much larger than when only records were played.

Christmas Prom-- Enjoyable Evening

Moonlight and Mistletoe was the theme of the Girls' League and Key Club-sponsored Christmas prom. The dance held on December 18th from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., saw over 200 dance to the music of Walt Johnson's band. The decorations consisted of colored lights shining from pillars covered with pine branches. In the center of the room was a hanging sprig of mistletoe. Two matching Christmas trees stood on either side of the band. Couples could have remembrance pictures taken by Quill and Scroll. During intermission Rick Mendivil, Key Club president, announced Ron Castro as Prom King. Ron then crowned Judy Hawthorne as Prom Queen. The class attendants were: Paula Bixler and David Saliba — juniors. Robin Gillespie and Jim Younger, sophomores, and Jean King and Jim Farney from the freshman class.

Everybody loves a queen and Ron Castro is no exception as he crowns Judy Hawthorne at the Christmas prom.

In anticipation of a pleasant evening at East's first formal dance were Doug Christian, Glenda Snider, Bruce Brummett, and Suzan Tancy.

Moonlight and Mistletoe means different things to different people, like ...

... having a list of all the boys you danced with.

... sharing a memorable evening with your friends.

... exchanging partners for one dance.

... trying to dance toward the mistletoe.

... having Mr. Arnold serve you punch.

"The Mouse That Roared" was a small European country called Grand Fenwick which declared war on the United States, expecting to lose and receive aid. Instead, because of a rather innocent mistake on the part of Grand Fenwick, the United States surrendered. The play was East's first dramatic production and was presented on November 10, 1965.

A take-off on "Young Lochinvar" and the "Can Can" highlighted the hour-long program which played to a full house in January.

Principal R. E. McCullar starred as Lochinvar and was supported by Miss Crane as they danced the 'Longhorn Stomp' with the help of Mr. Luck, Mr. Blackman, Mr. Davis, and Mrs. Brown.

The Physical Education department took the role of the Parisian dances in their hilarious can-can efforts. Representatives of all departments on campus took part in the follies.

Audience Cheers "Streets Of New York"

The generous Mr. Puffy (John Fiore) is finally located by his devoted wife (Ann Winter) who brings his supper of bread and cheese.

While cheers and boos greeted the various cast members as they appeared on stage during the March 24 performance, comments following the Speech and Drama Department production of "Streets of New York" brought nothing but cheers from an appreciative East High audience. Set off by some magnificent sets by Jim Cutbirth and his crew, the play was two and one half hours of fast moving action as hero Mark Livingston overcame impossible odds to win his lady fair, Lucy Fairweather.

Under the direction of Mrs. Marge Jones, the production featured 'olio' acts between the scenes. The short vignettes were directed by Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lucene Billing. Student Director Richard Malmleaf and his backstage crew kept the show moving with outstanding work in the changing the intricate sets for the five-act performance.

The play was offered to the student body as part of a two-part package which also included tickets to the Rodeo Dance.

Silver Spur Stomp Roarin' Success

The "Silver Spur Stomp", sponsored by Girls Letter Club with the assistance of G.A.A. and Boys Federation, was once again the dance of the year. Longhorns crowded the cafeteria for the western and rock 'n' roll music and to hear the results of the student body elections. In addition, the crowd watched as Margie Clement and Louis Olague were named 1966 Rodeo Queen and King. Decorations featured pictures of East High teachers on wanted posters on the walls along with rail fences and wagon wheels.

Speech Team Places High In Competition

From the speech classes and interested students, East High has created a speech team. The members enter organizational, city championships, and university speech contests. The first year team has won places in three major tournaments.

Although the members of the Speech Team work together to help each other, entering into competition is mainly on an individual basis. It is the responsibility of each member to prepare his own material and to make arrangements for entering the contest. Competition is stiff, and many hours of preparation are required.

Junior And Senior Girls Leagues Set, Met High Goals

Under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Downs, the SENIOR GIRLS LEAGUE COUNCIL enjoyed many activities this past year. Marine Week, Big Sisters, Faculty teas, and decorating for the Moonlight and Mistletoe Formal were just a part of the Councils' busy schedule. The Seniors contributed to a needy family at Christmas, and to the organ fund. Senior Council was also designated to select a silver service for the school; the service is to be purchased by the entire Girls League in honor of the first graduating Council. Officers for the 1965-66 school year were: PAM COOPER, president; KATHI PHILLIPS, vice president; JUDY HAWTHORNE, secretary; PAM ONG, treasurer.

JUNIOR GIRLS LEAGUE COUNCIL members participated in a number of activities for the 1965-66 school year. These included serving at the faculty tea, participation in the Wranglers' Carnival, the Big Sister Program, the Third Marine Christmas Project and two service projects in the Spring. The girls also held a carwash and bakesale. An atmosphere of school spirit prevails throughout all their activities. As Sophomores last year they worked to build the Girls League. This year they carried on that work and helped shape the League into a productive organization for both the school and community. Officers for the 1965-66 school year were: PAULA BIXLER, president; KATHY LOMELI, vice president; KATHY PARKER, secretary; BECKY CRIST, treasurer.

Underclass Councils Serve With Vigor

The SOPHOMORE GIRLS LEAGUE COUNCIL this year has truly been one of the most active clubs on campus. Throughout the year they participated in worthwhile projects such as the Marine, Salvation Army, the Carnival, Big Sister activities, the Christmas Formal and many others. Those Projects were of benefit to those outside and inside the school. Officers for the 1965-66 school year were: MARY FREEMAN, president; LEANN HAGEN, vice president; WENDY WONG, secretary; SHERL REED, treasurer.

Members of this year's FRESHMEN GIRLS LEAGUE COUNCIL, together with the members of the other three councils, carried out many activities which were beneficial to the entire school. These projects included the Third Marines' Project, and the first Christmas Prom. Freshmen girls were acquainted with the function of Girls League through the Big Sister Program. The girls also held bakesales and a carwash. Officers for the 1965-66 school year were: GAYLE WONG, president; JEAN KING, vice president; MARSHA HETTICH, secretary; SELMA HYMAN, treasurer.

THE KEY CLUB, known for its service projects and activities, is the junior extension of Kiwanis International. The club's first project was the initiation of the student body "Dress Up Day" which was destined to become a tradition on the last day of school. The KEY CLUB encouraged greater school spirit by forming car pools to the games away from home. At Christmas time the club co-sponsored and decorated the Moonlight and Mistletoe Formal. Members of the club, sponsored by Mr. Ed Shipp, provided posters for many of the school's major events and sales drives through work in silk screening. Christmas time brought some beautiful art work on glass doors and the windows in the cafeteria, and the colorful presentations helped to serve as decorations for the Christmas Formal.

Two members of the club worked on special designs for the Christmas Formal theme, while others provided backdrops for several presentations by other organizations on campus.

Dance, JV Pom, Cheer - Activity Plus

"Point those toes, and arch your back," are typical words heard in East High's first MODERN DANCE class. The class teaches the girls the art of dancing and the co-ordination of the body into graceful movements. The class performed during the Spring Play, doing various pantomimes and dances. Sponsored by Mrs. Lucene Billing, a Productions class will be chosen for next year. Members of the class drew praise for their performances at the spring play where they used the dance to portray melodramatic scenes in the "olio" acts.

Practice, perfection, and performance were the key words for the JUNIOR VARSITY POM PON AND CHEERLEADING squads at East High. The girls, who met in regular physical education classes during the day, spent after school hours and evenings working on routines to perform at the junior varsity home games in football and basketball. While supporting the Longhorn teams, the girls also worked toward spots on the varsity pom and cheer lines through auditions before faculty committees.

"EH" Letter Clubs In Organizational Year In '65-'66

The major purpose of the GIRLS' LETTER CLUB is to promote interest in girls athletics and service projects the organization sponsors during the year. Membership is earned through lettering in an inter-scholastic sport such as tennis, archery, badminton, gymnastics, or softball or through varsity participation in the pom pon line and cheerleading squad. The girls participated in the Third Marine Week drive but their major project of the year was sponsorship of the successful Rodeo Dance in March.

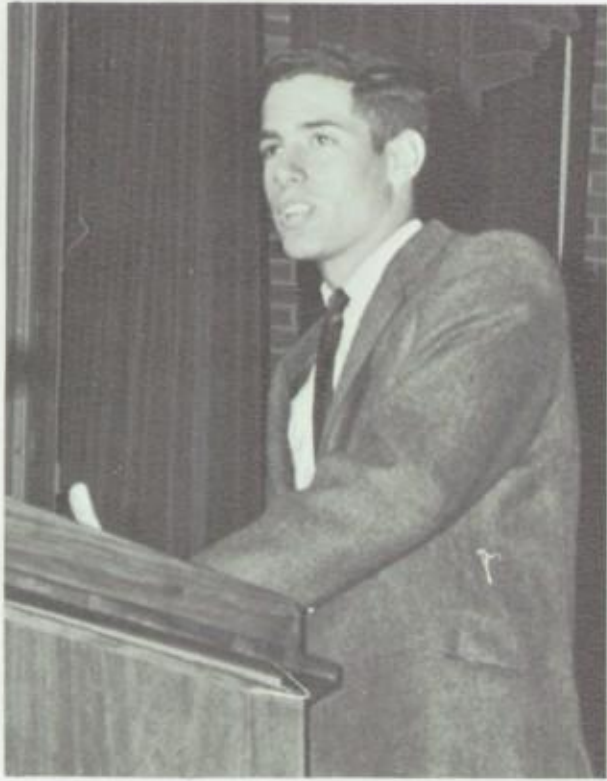

THE LETTERMENS' CLUB, formed under the sponsorship of Mr. Gene Cox, accepted its first members following the close of the football season when varsity letters were issued for that sport. Membership grew from a relatively small number to more than 30 with the completion of the 1965-66 basketball season when another group of letter winners were announced. All boys who letter in any varsity sport are eligible for membership in the club. The traditional special initiation for membership was a highlight of the spring season.

Signs and posters were everywhere and students from all classes lent support to their favorites.

Campaigning Exciting Time

East High's second election of student body officers was over. Nine candidates braved their way through campaign speeches, decorated the halls with posters, cast their votes in the special voting booths, and then began the long, long wait for the results to be made known at the annual Rodeo Dance. It was the first round in the annual election series which named student body officers, class officers and student senators for 1966-67.

Mike Heller's campaigners formed a pep band and toured the quad areas during the lunch periods.

Debbie Steinhauser and Lois Stephen were two of the 67% of the student body who cast votes.

Victory smiles for Mike Heller as he makes his way through the crowd after being named student body president.

THE GLORY OF ACTION excites the spirit of every high school student. Nothing typifies action better than a crunching tackle, the bruising ballet of driving for a basket, or the final rush in a close finish on the track. Athletics means action.

To win is important; nothing compares with the exhilaration that comes with victory, but there are other things as important as bringing up more points on a scoreboard.

THE SELF-DISCIPLINE that comes with hours of practice, stiff training schedules, the responsibilities of being a part of the team, the learning of the humility that comes with success and the determination that comes with defeat — all are significant factors in East High's athletics program.

The Glory Of Action

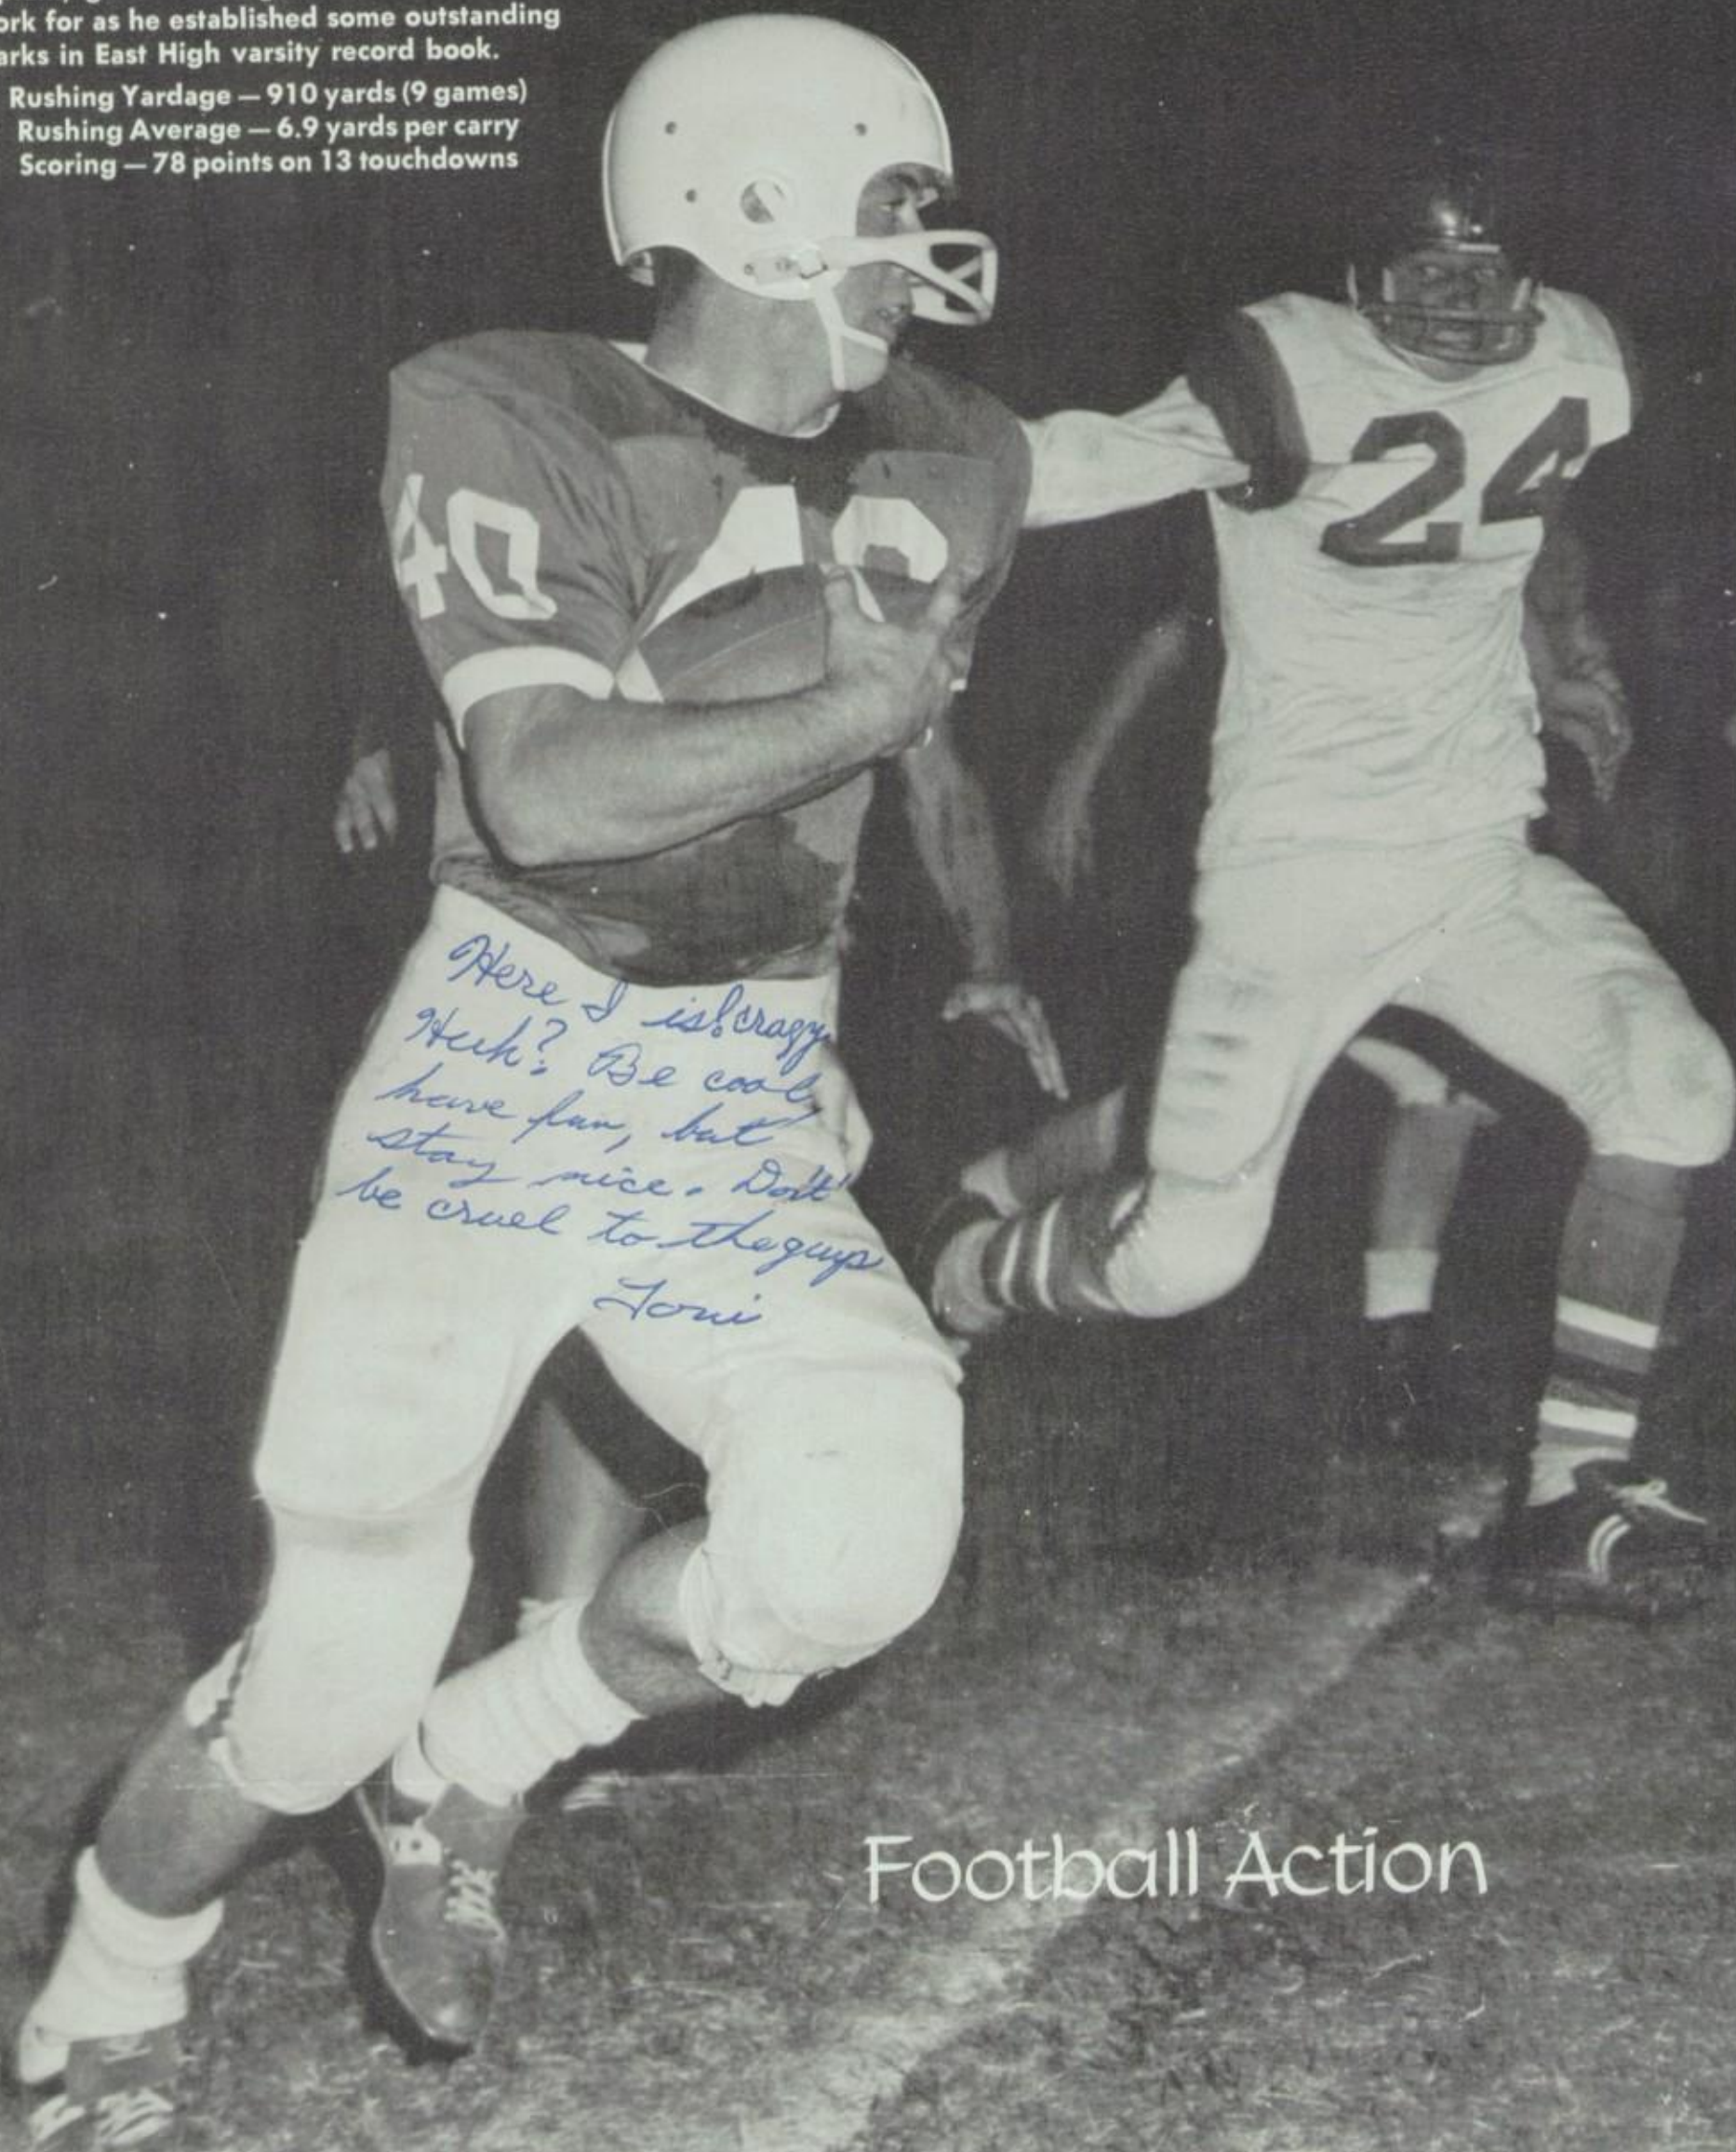

DENNIS PULLARO, 1966 Longhorn football captain, gave future gridders something to work for as he established some outstanding marks in East High varsity record book.

Rushing Yardage — 910 yards (9 games)

Rushing Average — 6.9 yards per carry

Scoring — 78 points on 13 touchdowns

Football Action

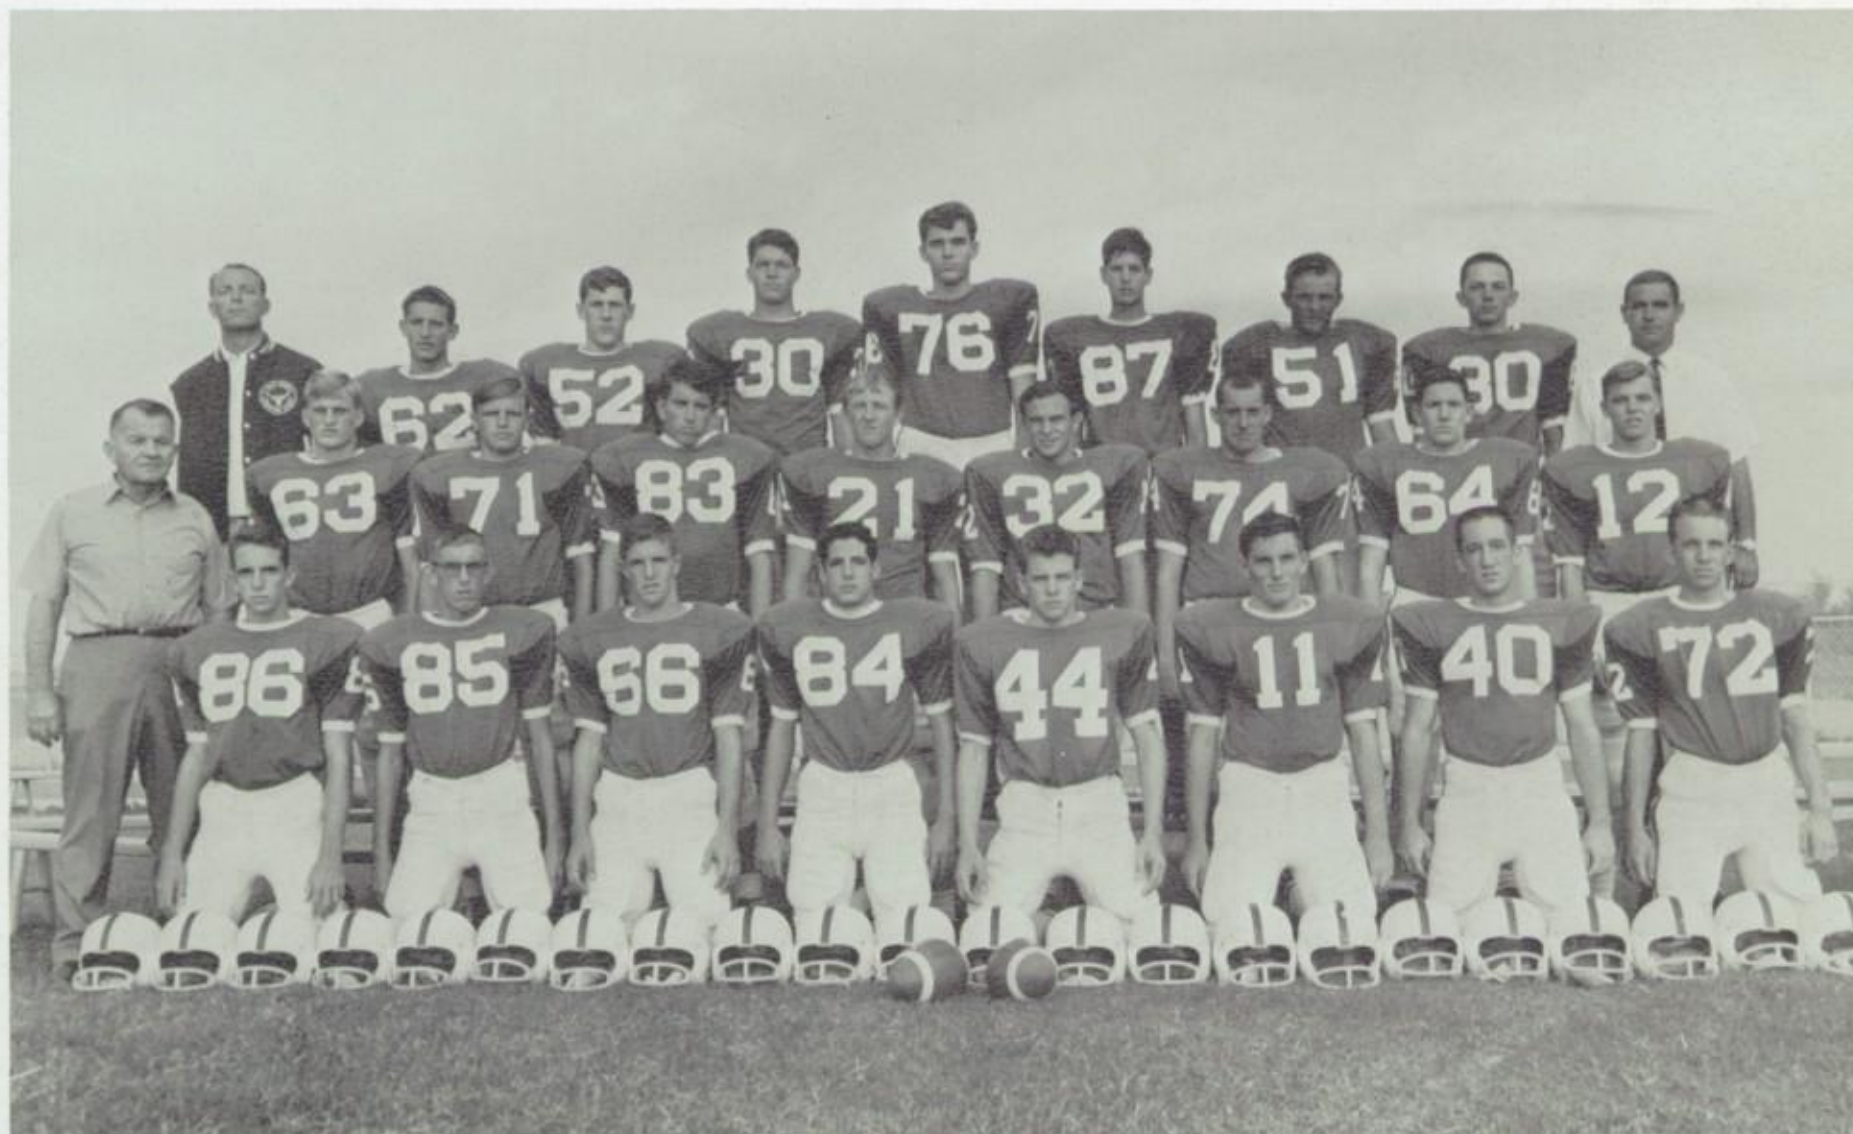

First Varsity Football Year Brings 5-4 Mark

Football — varsity style — made its first appearance at East High in 1965, and the Longhorns made their inaugural season a winning one completing the year with five wins and four losses. Coach Gene Cox's gridders dropped their opening two games, but roared back with four straight wins — three by shutout scores — before splitting the final pair. Competing as an independent and playing a Class A schedule, East saw two of its losses come at the hands of independent champ, McClintock, and another to Class A state runner-up, Peoria. Victories over Gerard, Bourgade, and Moon Valley were shutouts, while the other two wins came at the expense of AA Paradise Valley and Phoenix Christian.

Dennis Pullaro, named official team captain, led the Longhorn offense — which nearly doubled all opponents' rushing and passing yardage, 2267 yards to 1219 yards, as they ran up scores of 76, 61, and 32 points in three of their wins. Pullaro's 910 yards rushing netted him 6.9 yards per carry for the nine games and led all scorers with 13 touchdowns and 78 points. Quarterback Jim Younger passed for a completion percentage of .500 in connecting on 49 of 98 attempts for 747 yards, while Ed Hall grabbed off 10 receptions for 201 yards to lead in that department. Defensively, Mike Zimmerman and Mark Chronister led the Longhorns with Hall, Dennis Roderick and Pullaro gaining high totals in the defensive statistics.

Ed Hall (44) gets credit for a touchdown against Bourgade as he crossed the goal line and then had the ball slip away and out of bounds.

Ball Bounces Away In First Two Games

Peoria 22-East 13

The Panthers proved to be as strong a team as the Longhorns expected as the Class A State runners-up rolled to a 22-13 win. Despite a fast start on a 69 yard touchdown pass from Jim Younger to Dennis Budmon, the Peoria eleven came back to take a 14-7 halftime lead. Eddie Hall provided the East High thrills with a 70 yard touchdown gallop as he picked up a fumble with only seconds left in the game.

McClintock 21-East 13

A power failure in the field lighting system which delayed the game for an hour, and a similar failure in the Longhorn offense cost the East High eleven its first loss to rival McClintock. Dennis Pullaro's 80 yard punt return for a touchdown was the highlight for the Longhorns. The Chargers broke a 7-7 tie just before halftime and scored again in the third period to wrap up the victory, 21-13.

Redcoats, Rockets Fall To Spirited Longhorns

East 6-Gerard 0

Sparked by Jim Younger's passing, the Longhorns were led to their first varsity victory dumping the Gerard Redcoats, 6-0. With the score 0-0 in the fourth quarter, Younger passed to Mark Chronister for 13 yards and the only touchdown of the game. The sophomore signal caller connected on seven of 10 passes for 104 yards in the game.

East 76-Moon Valley 0

East buried Moon Valley's Rockets under an avalanche of touchdowns, scoring three touchdowns in every period to pile up 76 points. Dennis Pullaro gained 226 yards rushing and scored six touchdowns to lead the attack. While Jim Younger completed only four passes all evening, all four went for scores with the first one netting 71 yards to Eddie Hall.

East 19-Paradise Valley 13

Excitement was the key word as the Longhorns took advantage of a break to defeat Paradise Valley. With the score 13-13 and less than two seconds on the clock, the Cougars fumbled and Paul Bixler fell on the ball in the end zone for the winning score. Mark Chronister tallied the other two East High touchdowns.

East Adds 32-0 Color Day Win

East 32-Bourgade 0

East High celebrated its first color day with a smashing 32-0 win over Bourgade's Blue Angels. With Dennis Pullaro scoring twice and picking up another 143 yards and Jim Younger passing for two TD's, the Longhorns were in control of the game all the way. Defensively, East held the Angels to a single first down in the 48 minutes.

Judson 9-East 7

The name of the game was upset or perhaps looking too far ahead as Judson School used an interception in the final two minutes to trip up the Longhorns, 9-7. Holding a 7-3 lead going into the final moments of the game, Jim Younger threw his sixth consecutive pass only to have the Cougars' Scott McAllister haul it in and go the distance.

McClintock 27-East 13

Excitement filled the air at Sun Devil Stadium as the two top independents met for their final encounter of the season. The Longhorns struck first when Younger passed to Pullaro for 67 yards and a touchdown — the first scored against the Chargers in some six games. But from there on, it was all McClintock as they rushed for 135 yards and picked up four touchdowns. East's second score came with a minute left when Younger passed 8 yards to Dennis Roderrick, to make it 27-13.

East 61-Phoenix Christian 13

The final game of the season ended with complete victory for the Longhorns over Phoenix Christian. Pullaro again highlighted the game crossing the goal line three times and leading his offensive teammates to a game total of 302 yards and 61 points. Younger passed for three scores as East held Christian to 13 points.

Jayvee Football Squad In 1-7 Season Record

Junior varsity football took it on the chin for 1965 as the season saw only one victory in seven tries go up on the scoreboard. Feeling the pinch of the shortage of boys trying out for the various grid squads more than the varsity or frosh, the jayvees saw many sophomores play varsity ball and had to pick up manpower from the freshman squad to field a team for its schedule.

The junior varsity found itself in a state of flux for four ball games as boys moved from squad to squad, and failed to get a point on the scoreboard as the opposition ran up 65 points.

A 12-6 victory over Judson School provided the first scoring and the only win for the jayvees as McClintock's Chargers and Phoenix Christian's Cougars took over the win column in the final two games. East scored twice against McClintock and three times against Phoenix Christian, but the Chargers ran up a 27-13 win and the Cougars came back from a 19-6 halftime deficit to pull out a 26-19 victory.

Defense paid off in the first half for East as this pass was deflected against Phoenix Christian.

Touchdown bound against the Cougars as the Longhorns built up a first half lead only to drop a 26-19 decision.

Frosh Gridders Power To 5-3 Grid Mark

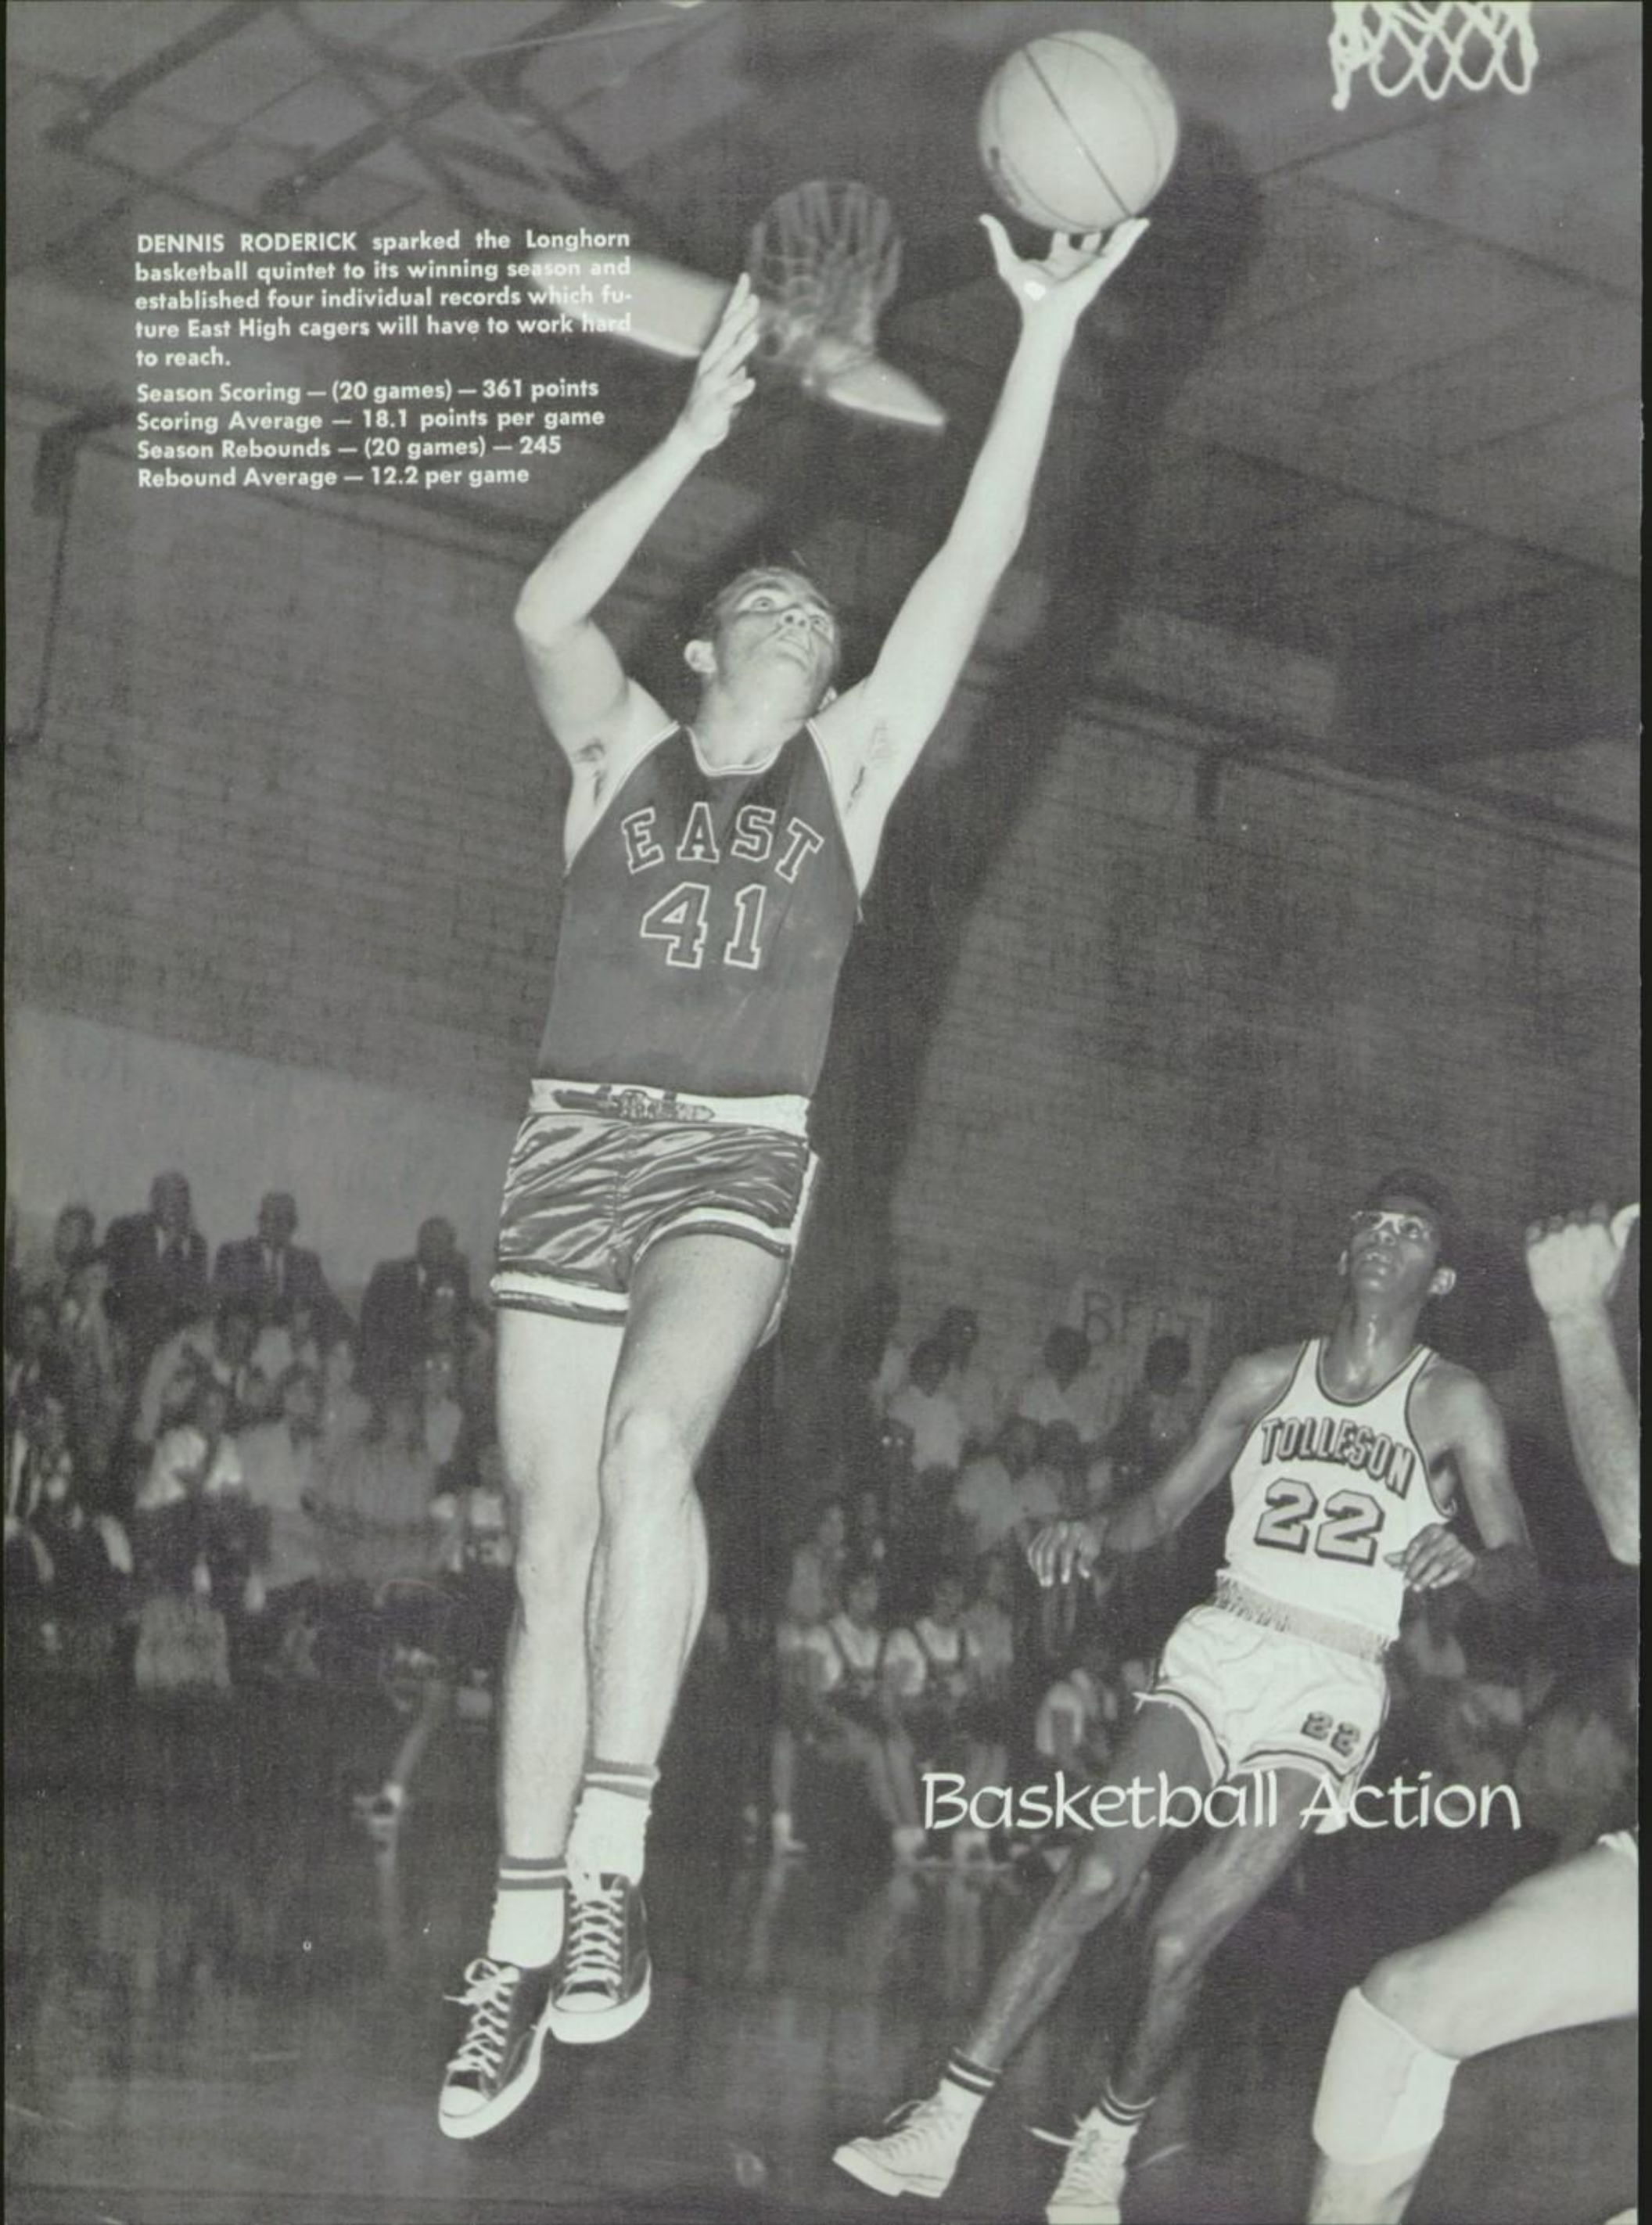

East High's first freshman football squad fought its way to a tough, but winning season in 1965, posting five victories against three losses. After a slow start, which saw the Little Longhorns fail to score in their opening two games, the frosh roared back and picked up three straight shutout wins, downing Paradise Valley, Moon Valley and Bourgade. North Phoenix powered its way to a 20-6 win over East to even the Longhorn record, but once again, the freshmen moved into gear and won its last two games.

Highlights of the year was the 25-13 victory over McClintock — the only East High football win over the Chargers in 1965 and revenge for the frosh after taking a 13-0 loss in their opener.

DENNIS RODERICK sparked the Longhorn basketball quintet to its winning season and established four individual records which future East High cagers will have to work hard to reach.

Cage "5" Wins State Independent Crown

CHAMPIONS WITHOUT A CROWN, Coach Royce Youree's 1965-66 basketball Longhorns swept past 16 opponents to bring home the mythical Arizona independent title in East High's first varsity year. The 15-man squad lost only four.

Led by the scoring and rebounding of senior Dennis Roderick and sophomore Mike Zimmerman, the short and scrappy Longhorns competed in the Class A ranks, were not eligible for any conference honors, but were named independent champs by flashing a perfect record against other non-aligned teams.

The well-balanced East High quintet opened with a pair of wins and reeled off another eight straight victories to post a 10-2 record by mid season. Closing with a second rush, the Longhorns roared by their final four opponents to complete an .800 season.

Outscoring all opposition, 1265-960, Coach Youree's cagers swept seven home and home series, split another, and lost only to two teams without turning the tables.

Statistically, Roderick nailed down an 18.1 scoring average in the 20 games, netting a total of 361 points, and pulled down 245 rebounds to average 12.2 in that department. Zimmerman picked up a total of 249 points for a 12.4 per game mark and averaged 10.8 rebounds, while Gus DeKavallas scored 169 markers and Larry Lee added another 101 giving both seniors an 8.4 point production per contest.

Senior forward Larry Lee drives for an easy layup in the Longhorns' 67-51 win over McClintock.

Cage Squad In Sweep Of Seven Series

East 55 - Moon Valley 21

East High cagers found the Rockets from Moon Valley short on shooting prowess and blew up the Rockets on their home court.

East 54 - Peoria 41

Peoria, determined to get even for an early season loss, stayed close for a while but the Longhorns moved away for a 13 point win.

East 71 - Seton 43

Using the starting five only sparingly, Coach Youree failed to keep the score down and the Longhorns bombed Seton for the second time.

East 67 - McClintock 51

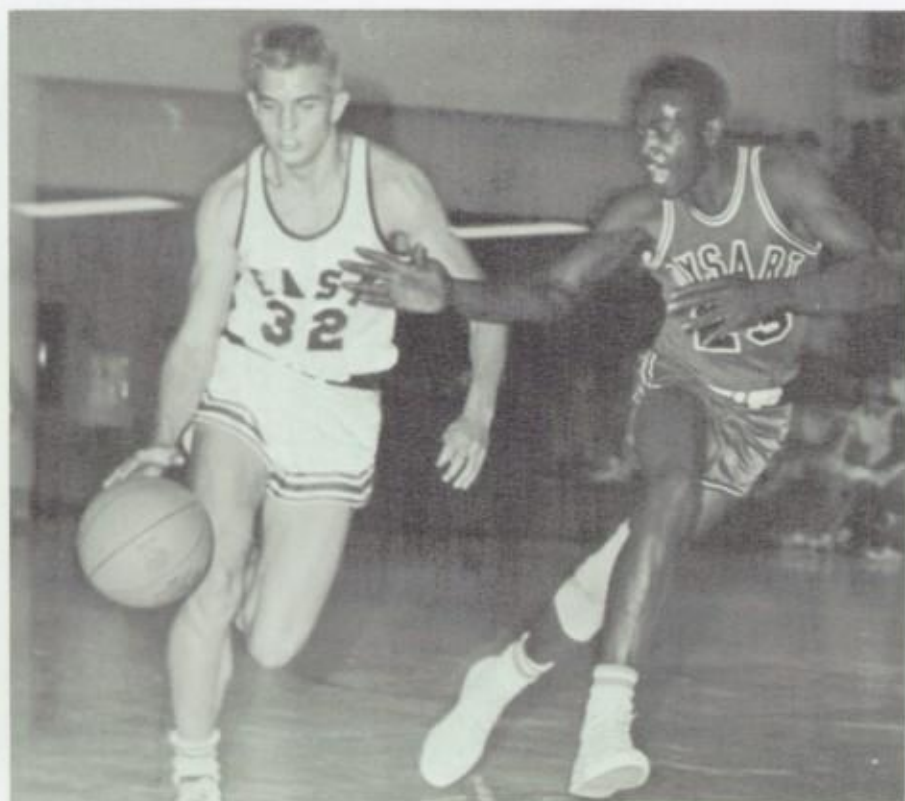

McClintock became the eighth straight victim for the onrushing Steers and East kept its record clean against the Chargers winning, 67-51.

Buckeye 103 - East 63

It was the Owl's night to screech as they set a scoring record in destroying the Longhorns in a game at Buckeye.

East 68 - Gerard 60

Scottsdale High's Gym was the setting but the outcome was the same as East tripped up Gerard for the second time in the season.

Walt Allinger moves quickly around his Dysart High defender as East High dropped the visitors with a second half rush, 53-32.

Ed Hall gets off a jumpshot in Peoria's Gymnasium as Mike Zimmerman and Larry Lee follow the action. Longhorns defeated the Panthers, 54-41.

Tolleson 53 - East 51

East High played catch-up in the repeat against Tolleson and were still trying to catch-up when the final buzzer sounded.

East 66 - Dysart 45

The Longhorns traveled northwest and came back with another trophy rolling to an easy 66-45 win over Dysart's cage five.

East 60 - Phoenix Christian 59

Sweet revenge came with Gus DeKavalas's 26 foot jumper with 7 seconds left as the East quintet edged Phoenix Christian.

East 65 - Bourgade 43

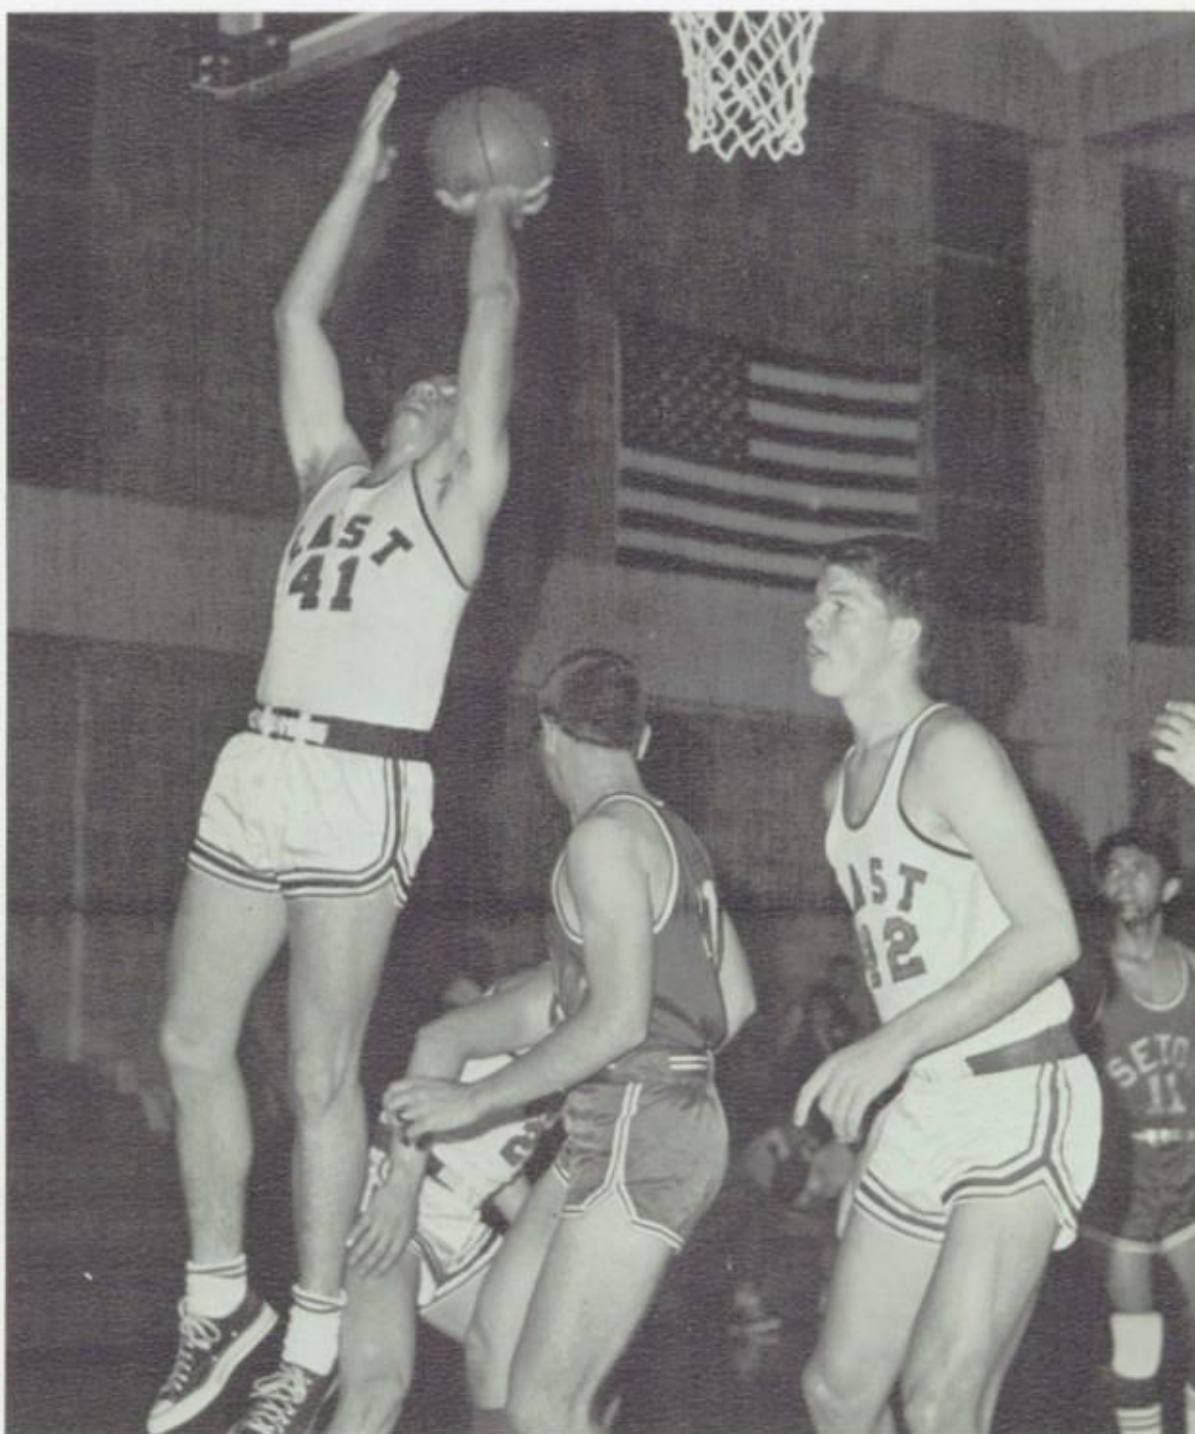

East made it two in a row over Bourgade smashing the Blue Angels in a game played on the Grand Canyon hardwood.

East 74 - Judson 36

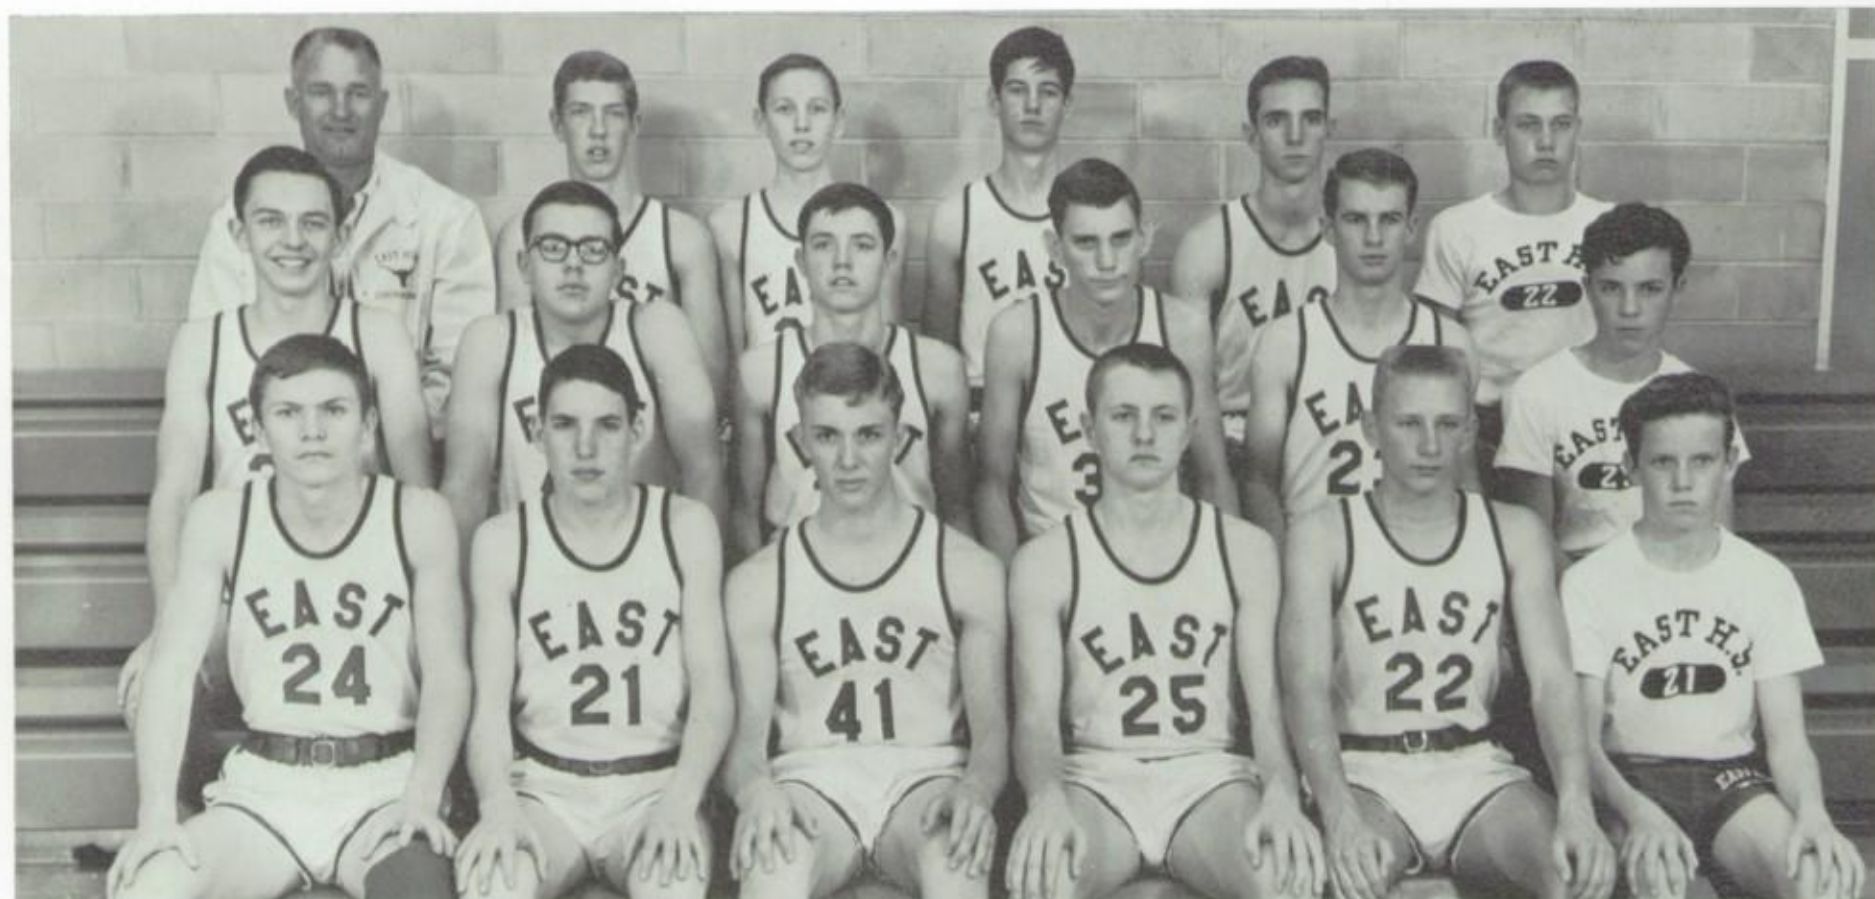

Undermanned Judson School invaded the Longhorn corral and East obliged by more than doubling the score over the Cougars.

East 80 - Moon Valley 30

Sporting a 48-21 lead at halftime, the Steers captured number 16 behind Dennis Roderick's 26 point production and defused Moon Valley's Rockets 80-30.

It's that man Roderick again along with his partner in scoring Mike Zimmerman. Roderick scored and the Steers zipped to an early lead and coasted home with a 71-43 win over Seton in the East Gym.

Coach Wendell "Pat" Patterson kept his junior varsity basketball squad right on the heels of the varsity five in 1965-66 as they rolled to a 15-5 record for the season. Following the varsity lead, the jayvees posted a near-perfect independent mark, losing only once in that division.

Forward Bill Lamb paced the li'l Longhorn scorers sending 235 points through the hoop in the 20 game schedule. Mike Heckman, Larry Adams, and George Poteet provided the rest of the major scoring punch, Heckman getting more than 150 points. Lamb and Dennis Budmon made it a close contest in the rebounding statistics. The junior varsity cagers completed their season with a five-game win streak after posting a four-game victory skein early in the year, while the five losses came at scattered points in the campaign. In piling up the 15 wins, Coach Patterson's scrappy squad took both ends of home and home contests with six opponents, dropping a pair to only one school.

As Jim Johnson and Dennis Budmon look on, Mike Schucker fires away at the basket.

Harriers Win Two

Potential success in Cross Country fell at the hands of injury for the Longhorn harriers in 1965. Working with last year's junior varsity city champion, Dwayne Lynch, out of action for most of the season with injuries, and number two man, Earl Currier, the victim of two disabling injuries, Coach John Thomas turned to the youngsters and found only limited progress in the victory column.

The Longhorns opened with a 27-30 victory over rival McClintock, — low score is the winner — but were far back in the pack at the Thunderbird Invitational which followed. The Speedy Phoenix Indians took all top places in a three way meet with East High falling to last place, but Coach Thomas's runners bounced back to trounce Paradise Valley, 19-42.

After a disappointing showing in the Squaw Peak Invitational, East lost its final dual meets to Glendale, and Sunnyslope, and then picked up a second place in a four way meet before finishing third in the season's closing triangular.

THE BLISS OF GROWTH comes with advancement through the maze of classes and activities which leads toward graduation ceremonies and the diploma. Seldom will the senior accept the image he made for himself as a freshman. As a 'mature' 18-year-old, he hopes to carry with him the presence of a knowledgeable adult.

Four years of growth begin with the elementary school graduate — sitting on top of the world — and finding himself a beginner again and having to make the adjustments.

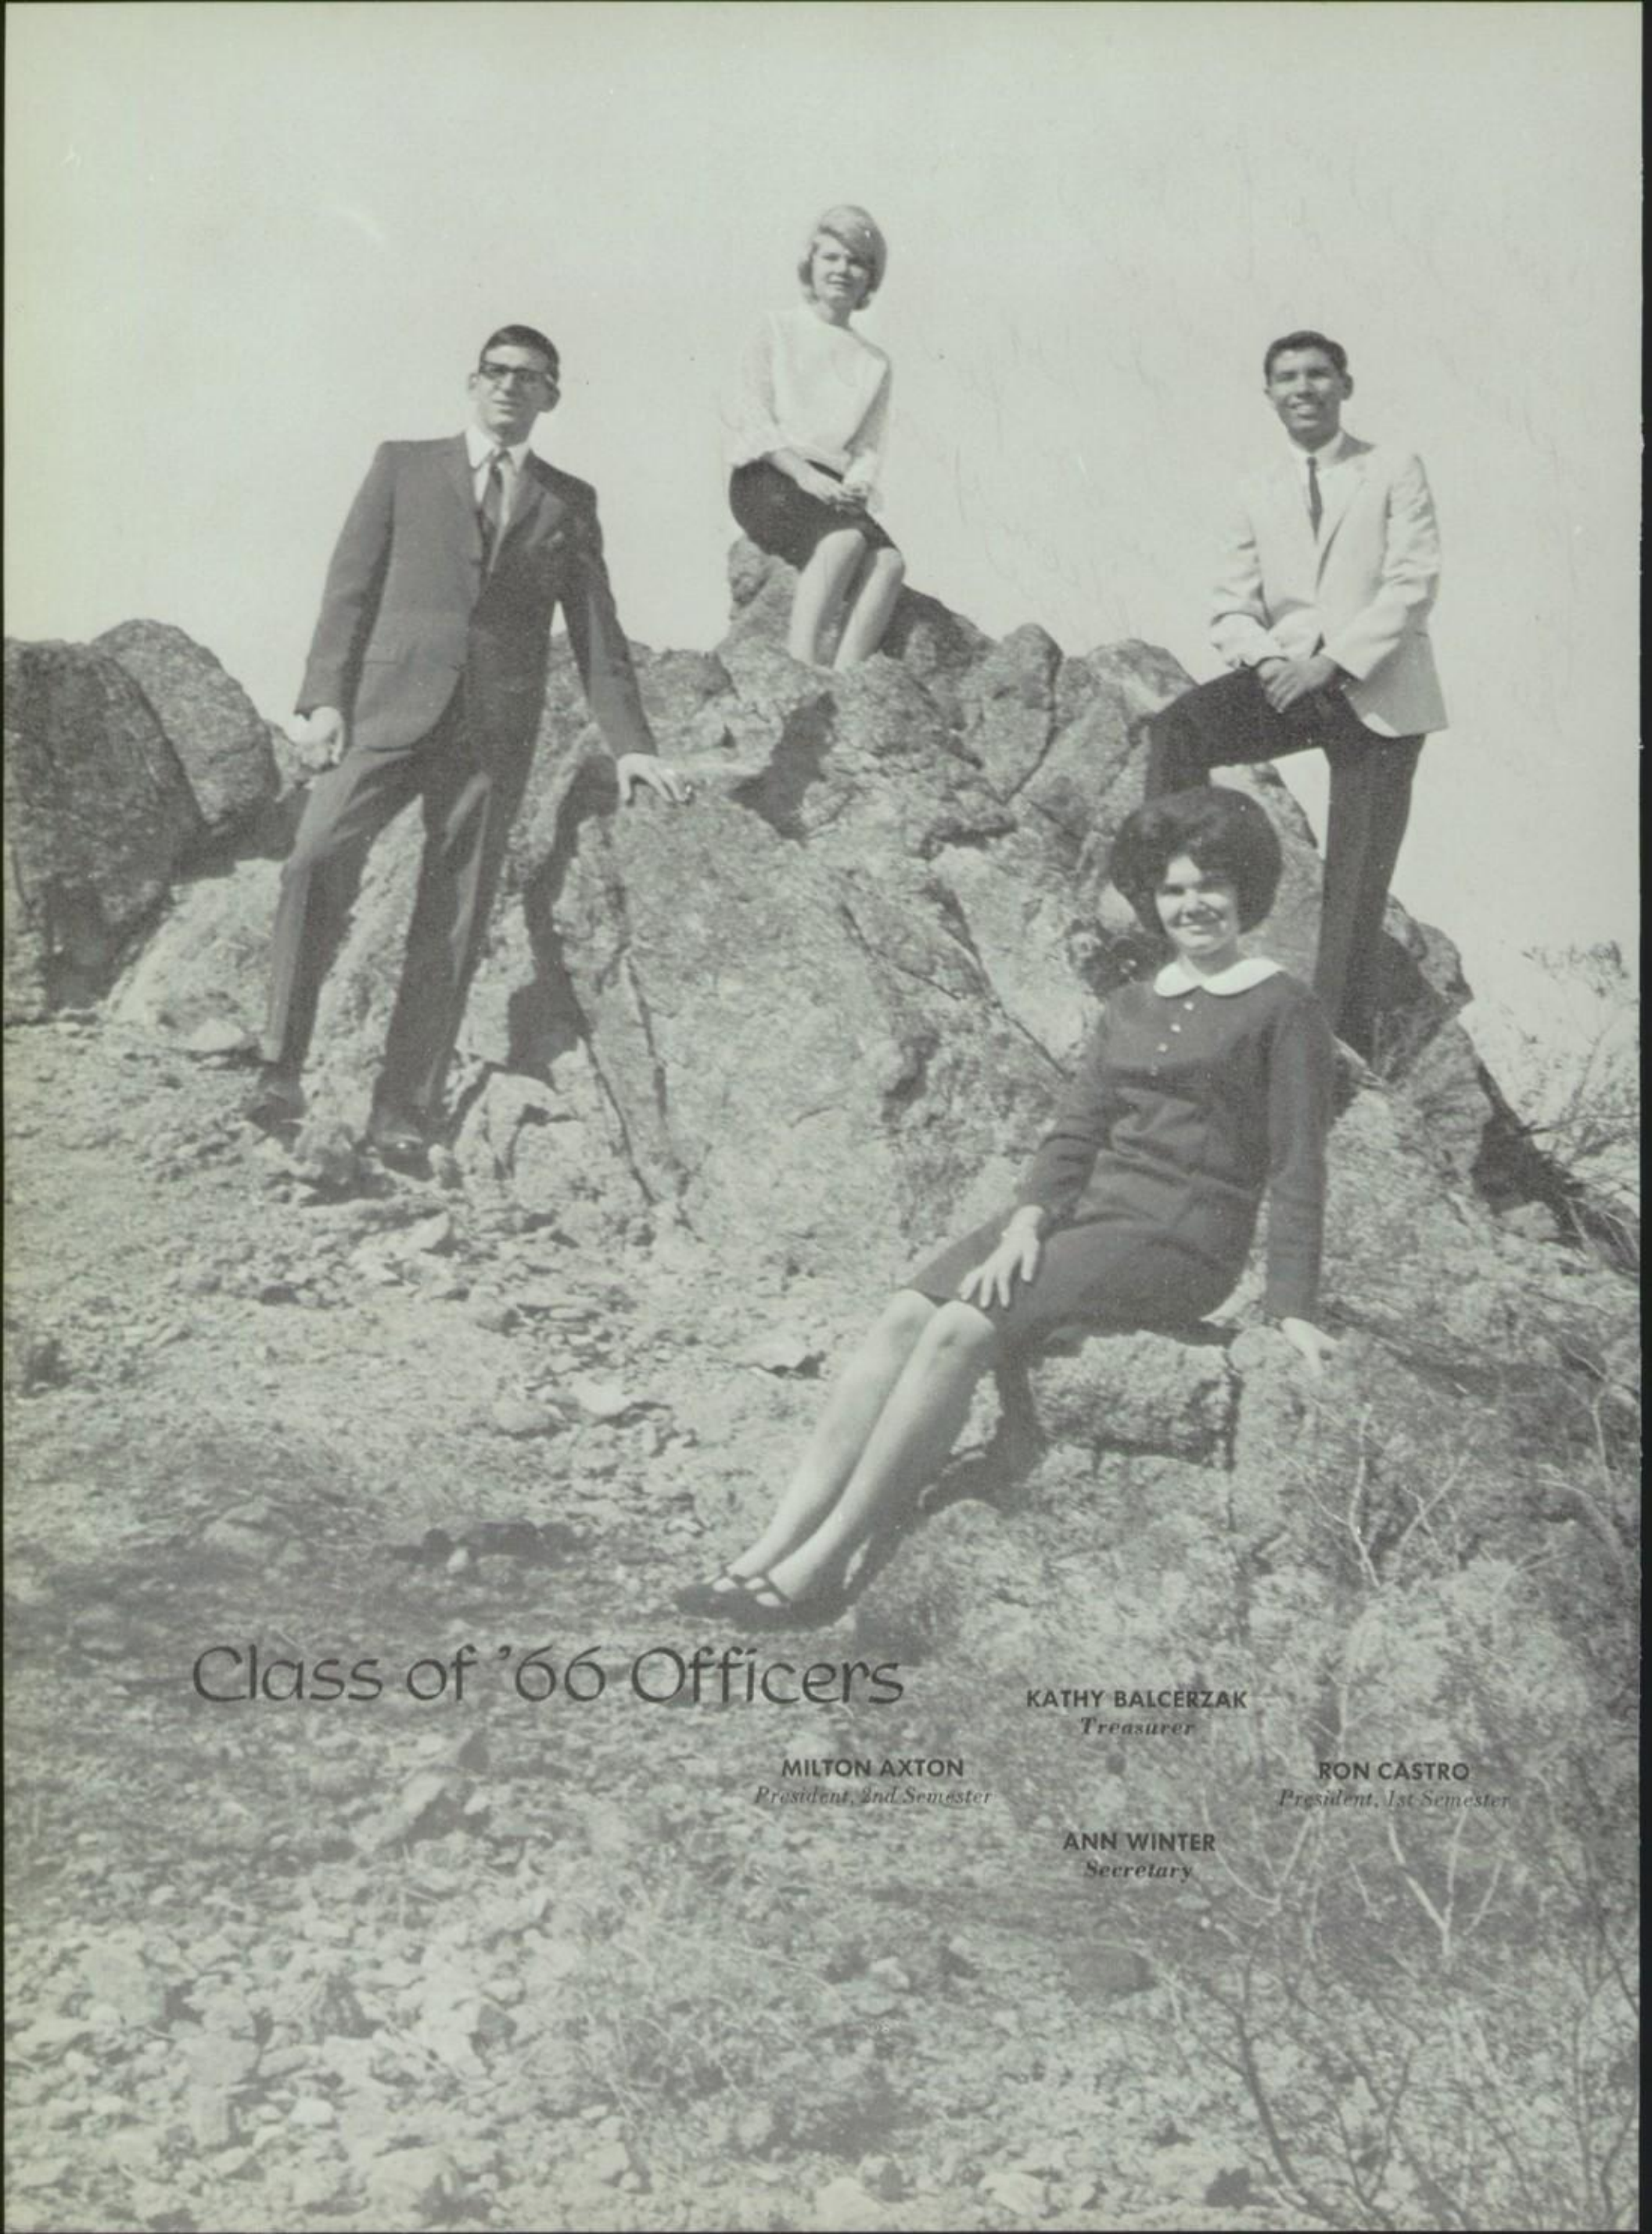

A YEAR LATER he is master of all he surveys and will tell the world about it.

A junior finds himself in new surroundings with the upper-division work, the drivers license, and discussions beginning to center on the future. Then there is the senior portrait appointment, the college entrance exams, and suddenly four years have flown.

IT IS A TIME TO PONDER the opportunity graduation brings and the leaving of a very special kind of 'home' your high school has become. It is a time of growth.

Tomorrow Is Only A Vision.....

Finished at last! The last copy block has been written, the last pictures taken, and the first Legend has become a reality. Within its pages are captured the many traditions and experiences that have become East High School.

I breathe a sigh of regret when I realize that this year is almost over, and soon I will turn the reins over to a new editor and the production of the 1967 Legend will be under way.

To my hard-working staff, I want to say, "It's been great!" I want to thank my Associate Editor, Lorna Jones, whose advice has been a great aid to me; and also Bob Jackson, who designed our beautiful cover. Thanks to Janifer Jones, Ann Winter, Linda Cockerham, Pat Beck, Peggy Jenkins, Bernadette Kaput, and Judy Hawthorne who will graduate with me this June. Best wishes to Mabyn Bates, Laura Whedon, Kathy Parker, Jana Dixon, Pam Compton, Debbie Janosik, Renee' Fritz, and Ruth Stevenson who will edit next year's book, and also to Rick Harwood, Jim Mooney, John Fiore, and David Kraig whose photography enhances the pages of the Legend.

But, if not for Mr. Bostrom, this book would never have been completed. We owe our entire inspiration and dedication to this fine teacher, adviser, and friend who gave us so much more than we could ever repay.

These are the people who work behind the scenes, sacrificing lunch, spare time, Saturdays, and sometimes their own health and sanity for the completion of this book. These are the people who were so indispensable in creating this first Legend, a book that we hope you will read and own with pride.

Aside from all this nostalgia, it has been both a great pleasure and experience to have been associated with this group of people. They have put forth a lot of effort and imagination to produce this premier edition of the Legend. On their behalf and mine, "We hope you enjoy it."
